Linda,

Hi! Well, you've already heard all the good things about yourself so I'll tell ya the bad. (HA! HA!) No, really, you've been a great friend for as long as I've known ya. How long is that? Well, anyway, we've had a lot of fun together in the past year, but I don't think we'll have half as much in the next year. (I'm talking about that night at my house with Larry & Rudy.) But don't ever forget that night. That was the greatest of 'em all. Be good, & but I don't know what to tell ya!

Love ya,

Did you notice the new Chief Redskin in the building this year? If you didn't, you were the only one! The school as a whole has certainly noticed him. He is Mr. Luther McDowell Jr., and he has rekindled the spirit of Seneca. Mr. McDowell has many substantial recommendations. He attended Millersburg Military Institute and graduated from Atherton High School in 1955. He attended the University of Louisville, and there he received a Bachelor of Science degree. At Western Kentucky University he received his Master's degree and Rank One certificate. He has had positions at three Jefferson County high schools, Western, Doss, and Jesse Stuart. We feel Mr. McDowell has shouldered and carried his administration at Seneca as stupendously as he has carried forth the "fired up" spirit of the Seneca Redskins. We wish you "Good Luck" in the future at Seneca, Mr. McDowell!

People asked, "who is the new assistant principal of the ninth and tenth grades?" He is Mr. James Burch, and he is a graduate of Kentucky Wesleyan. He has had positions at Butler and Durrett High Schools. We feel that this man has strengthened the ninth and tenth graders and helped them achieve higher goals this year.

Mr. McDowell is almost always happy in his work at Seneca.

"This is great, but the best is yet to come."

Mrs. Burdette often works with Mr. McDowell.

Mr. Burch, Mr. McDowell, and Mr. Craigmyle roam the halls to help keep order.

The Flag Flies High Over The Redskin Reservation

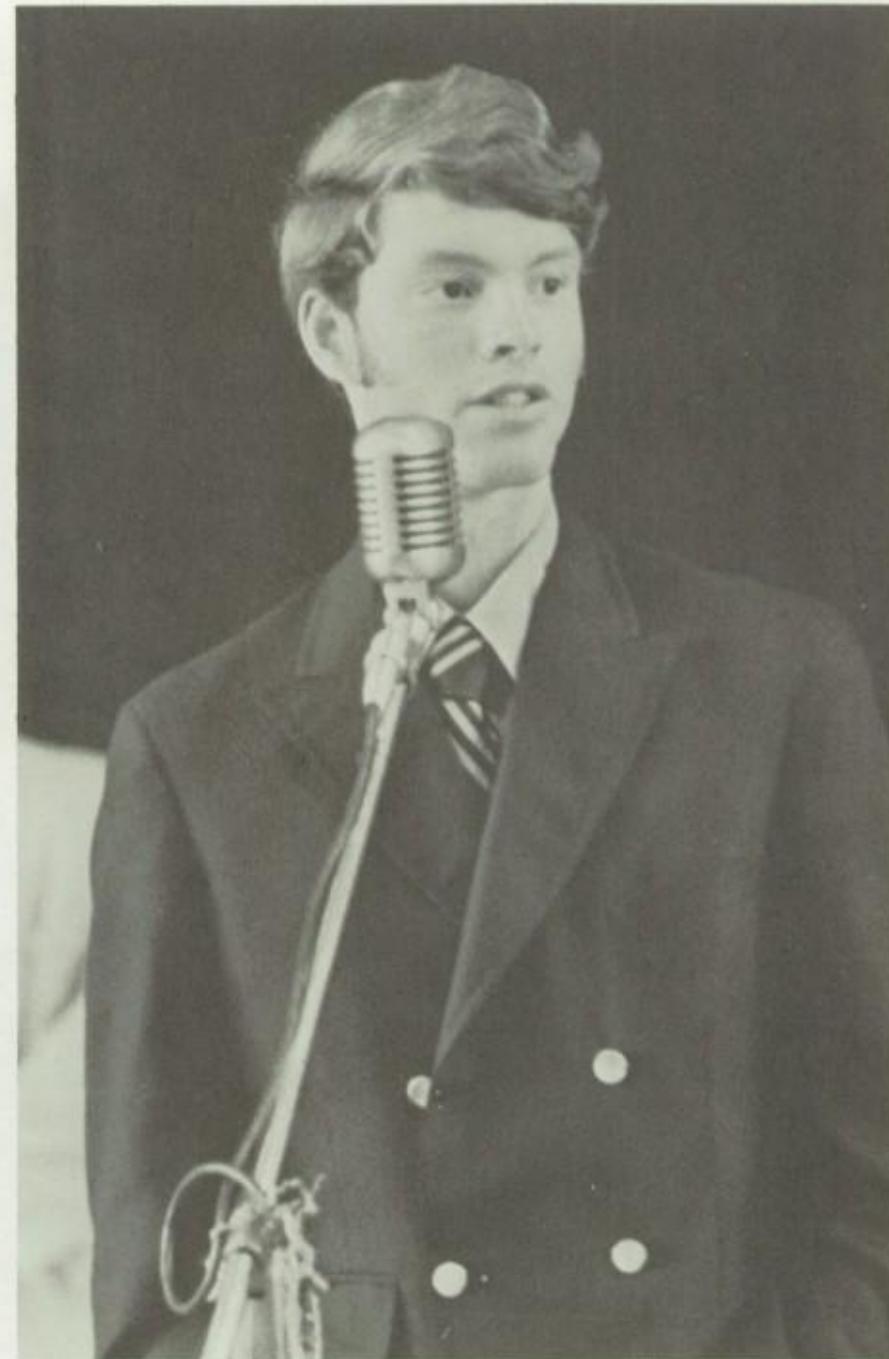

The Seneca Flag doesn't fly too well.

The Color Guard in review before the ceremony.

Flag-raising! What in the world is flag-raising? According to the entire Seneca High School student body and faculty, it was the great day when our school received a flag pole on which to raise the flag of our great nation. The ROTC was there along with Colonel Cool and Mr. Wilson to have the honor of the first raising of "Old Glory" over our illustrious school. Representatives from our Senior Class and a few of the organizations were there also. This flag pole symbolizes that Seneca High School is behind our country all the way! May "Old Glory" on our Seneca Flag pole fly forever!

The Style Show Takes Shape

In May a very special event took place in the old gym in preparation for upcoming Senior activities. It was a Spring Fashion Show sponsored by Kingsley Walker Florists, in conjunction with several clothing stores in the Oxmoor Center. The entire show was co-ordinated by Mr. Chuck Franklin, the manager of Kingsley Walker Florists, and Seneca Senior Tyson Williams.

Mr. Franklin prepared and presented the fashion show for the purpose of showing the juniors and seniors what was going to be the "in" thing in fashion for the Prom and the Breakfast. Seneca seniors modeled several stunning outfits from many well-known stores. The scene was full of "Hot Pants" and the latest thing in formal wear.

With the conclusion of the show, there was a general consensus that the style show was a success, and should be made an annual event.

Was Cathy Goldstein's outfit made by Betsy Ross?

The models seem pleased with their work well done.

Opening Kickoff

The Drill Corps bids the Redskins "Good Luck!"

Redskin football '71 was finally beginning, and electricity filled the air as the team showed they were ready for Southern. With a large crowd, an array of spirited Cheerleaders, and good coaching behind them, the team had to fight a surprisingly tough Trojan team, and a 6-0 deficit at the half to pull out win number one. The heavily favored Redskins needed a touchdown on a fumble recovery by Greg Dix and great second efforts and third efforts from fullback Gary Brewer on the point after attempt to save the victory. Pride was the factor as the team overcame a slow start and hung on in the waning moments to post the first of many victories and to launch a winning season once again.

Welcome to opening game 1971.

Touchdown, without a question!

The Red and Gold marches on.

The 1971 Redskin Football Squad.

The Majorettes add to the band.

Eddie Brown salutes the team.

Senior Awards And Banquet 1971

Elliot Goldstein accepts congratulations for the Bausch and Lomb Science Award.

Lynn Benda and Henry Boswell have to be the most spirited in the school.

Tom Warren accepts the Eastern Kentucky University Award for Scholarship and Leadership.

The 1971 Yearbook Awards - Mrs. Kraft congratulates Eleanor Flaniken, Audrey Sherskey, and Pat Wilson.

The All Around Boy and Girl - Bob Vice and Katy Gilbert.

The Sentinel Awards - Alice Nethery accepting for Wayne Milstead, Miss Combes, Tyson Williams, and Mary Wrocklage.

Booster Club President Bob Richardson congratulates Buddy Key on the Ron Garrison Memorial Athletic Award.

John Cubine happily accepts the American Legion Medal for Americanism.

Class President Bob Vice addresses the audience at the banquet.

Hi-Q Champions Travel to Maryland

The 1970-71 Hi-Q Team, which traveled to Baltimore, Maryland.

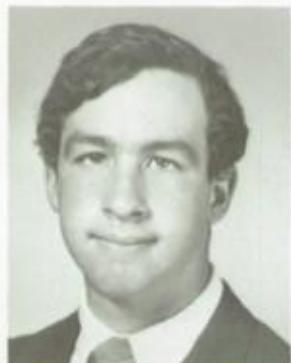

The Seneca Hi-Q team, under the diligent leadership of Mr. Parker, began its fourth season of competition this year, taking top honors locally for two of the three years which it has been in existence. The realm of competition is a wide one consisting of academic knowledge, quick recall, and the skill it takes to combine the two. Thus, the members of the team have a great challenge to meet. Last year's team went into national competition with a Baltimore team for the honor of meeting a Great Britain team on the Hi-Q battlefield. Although bowing to the Baltimore all-star team, the Seneca Hi-Q team did a job we can well be proud of.

Seneca Salutes

MR. CRAIGMYLE

Mr. Craigmyle is a man who takes his job seriously, yet makes it a pleasurable experience for both himself and the people with whom he works. This is evident, for he is always smiling.

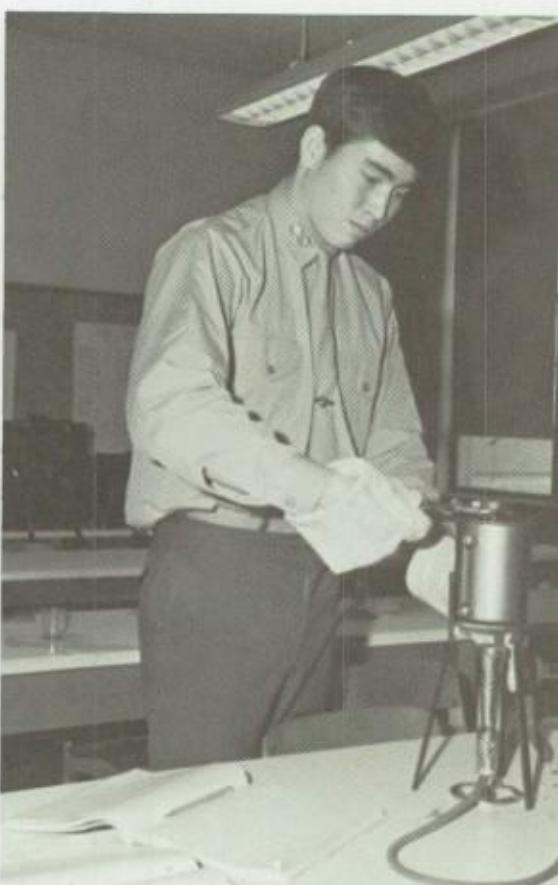

Mr. Craigmyle shoulders many responsibilities but this year he had another one. Adjusting the new administration to Seneca seemed to be his chief concern. He manipulated the student body toward the administration in such a subtle way that it did not seem he did anything at all. Mr. Craigmyle sits somewhat in the background and never gets the credit for the work he does. Today and forever, we salute you, Mr. Craigmyle. Right On!

MRS. HARRISON

Dedication is the real difference between success and failure and the dedication of Mrs. Harrison is certainly a plus mark for our school. In her past five years at Seneca the enthusiasm and support she has given the cheerleaders is indicative of the dedication to her profession and its involvements with students.

Besides sponsoring the Varsity Cheerleaders, she has in the past served as the Debate Team coach. Whether involved with her students or working on extra-curricular projects, her support and encouragement provides a spirit that lasts even after the work is done. So, Mrs. Penny Harrison, Seneca proudly salutes you!

JIM MEREDITH

Jim Meredith is considered by his fellow students as a great all-around guy and his achievements support this. He has served Seneca well. Through his dedication and hard work in R.O.T.C. he has attained the rank of Cadet Captain, is a member and officer of Seneca's Rifle Team, and has been awarded a medal from the Bronze Reserve Officer's Association of the United States recognizing his outstanding achievements in the Arts and Sciences of National Defense.

Jim's achievements academically are equally as high as those in the R.O.T.C. He ranks eighth in his class of 490 students with a 3.9 point average and is a member of the Beta Club National Honor Society. He has participated in football, and baseball and has been very active in wrestling. Jim is also a member of the Junior Jefferson County Crime Commission.

Seneca takes pride in saluting you, Jim Meredith, a friendly, talented, and dedicated person.

KATHY ABOUD

It is not unusual to attend a Seneca function and see Kathy Aboud. This Seneca Redskin's spirit and enthusiasm has been shown all during her years at Seneca. She has shown her support and interest by her attendance at all of Lonesome's football and basketball games.

Besides being a dedicated fan, Kathy also excels in her academic life. She is a member of both the Beta Club and the National Honor Society. It is responsible and sincere people like Kathy who have made Seneca an outstanding High School. So to you, Kathy Aboud, we give a much deserved salute.

This mass of metal, plastic, and rubber is known as a full bicycle rack.

Enjoy it. This is probably the last time you'll ever ride your bicycle.

Jackie Ponder pleases all with "Hello Dolly."

Mr. Stickler Interviews the "stars" of "Guys and Dolls."

Imagine seeing numbers from seven exciting Broadway productions - all in one evening! That's exactly what happened when Eugene Stickler's Drama Department presented "A Review of the Broadway Musicals," to raise money for the Seneca Drama Department.

It was exciting indeed to see the "stars" of these shows return to the stage to re-create their roles. One of our former "stars" Nancy Mason Waddell, has returned to Seneca as an English teacher. Mrs. Waddell sang a number from "The Pajama Game" (1964) in which she played the leading role. Many who were unaware of Mrs. Waddell's ability were indeed impressed.

Barbara Reinschmidt and Charlie Petry were featured in "Love Makes the World Go Round," from "Carnival" (1965), as were Tim Day and Marilyn Robie in "I've Never Been In Love Before," from Guys and Dolls (1970). Another memorable duet was "A Boy Like That" from "West Side Story" (1967), as performed by Val Lindsay and Linda Fetzer. Jackie Ponder, Seneca's perfect "Dolly," reviewed one of the most successful musicals ever presented at Seneca. Katy Gilbert delighted the audience with her "Adelaide' Lament," from "Guys and Dolls."

Several behind-the-scenes people were also an integral part of the show. (Without these people Seneca's musicals could not be the masterpieces they are). Those receiving recognition included Mrs. Linda Ford Braun (choreography), Mrs. Kathryn Metcalf (make-up), Mr. John Crossan (consultant), and Mr. Harold Wich, who led the Orchestra for so many years.

"A Review of The Broadway Musicals" was indicative of the dedication of former Redskins to their alma mater and of the proud tradition we have to look back on.

Administration

This is just one small section of the "miles of paperwork" handled by the administrative staff of Seneca High School.

Seneca is fortunate to have three able administrators to help the students smoothly through the swiftly passing days of secondary education. This team is responsible in part for the few dropouts and suspensions we have had this year.

At the peak of our totem pole is our courageous leader, Mr. McDowell. He assists the student body and faculty in general as well as in specific areas of curricular and extra-curricular activities. To attain his help is easy - just ask him. He has his finger on the pulse of all the activities going on here.

Branching off the peak, like two strong arms, are our assistant principals, Mr. Burch and Mr. Craigmyle, who act as liaisons between Mr. McDowell, the faculty, and the student body.

Mr. Burch has charge of all finances connected with Seneca. The sophomores and freshmen are of special interest to him, both academically and activity-wise.

Mr. Craigmyle is an old friend to our senior Redskins. He was their first counselor when they entered Seneca as seventh graders in 1966. The junior class members have also benefited from his experience, which has been invaluable to Mr. McDowell throughout his first year as principal at Seneca.

Miss Stephens and Mr. Palmer

Your journey on the road of education would be very disheartening and boring if it were not for six people who sit somewhat behind the scenes, in the counselor section of the senior high office. With the Elective Quarter Plan of 1972 upcoming, the job of the counselors will be even more demanding than it has ever been before. These dedicated people will be there to listen to any personal problems you may have, and make the needed schedule changes.

The freshman and sophomore girls and boys have been very privileged to have such counselors as Miss Ginny Polsgrove and Mr. Tom Ash. Miss Polsgrove has her A.B. degree from Georgetown and her Master's degree from the University of Louisville. Mr. Ash received his B.S. and M.E. degrees from the University of Louisville.

Miss Selma Stephens and Mr. Robert Palmer jointly counsel the junior and senior classes. Miss Stephens has a B.S. degree from Eastern Kentucky University and a Master's degree from the University of Kentucky. Mr. Palmer received his A.B. and M.E. degrees from the University of Kentucky.

Mrs. Louise Ramsey, has the job of counselor-coordinator. Mrs. Ramsey holds an A.B. degree from Western University and her Master's degree from the University of Louisville.

Mr. W. K. Niman rarely receives the credit he deserves from the students. He is the Administrative Assistant in Human Relations. He has a B.A. from Western and an M.S. from Indiana University.

Class of 1961 Reunion

Rayna Waldman Issacs; Allan and Phyllis Turk Goldberg; Beverly Goldsmith Kramer.

I have wondered what they are doing; I have wondered where they are. I would like to see if those first Redskins have traveled very far ... so ...

On the evening of November 26th, I dropped by the Marriott Inn and spent a few hours visiting with 200 members and spouses of our first graduating class of 1961. They came from as far as New Jersey and Texas, with children from two weeks to eleven years old.

The evening was delightful from the cocktail party at 6:00 (through) the buffet dinner and until the last parting good-bye about 1:30 a.m. Mr. Farmer, our first tribal chieftain, reminisced with us all about events of the past.

It is nice to know that so many of our earliest tribe still keep the spirit of Seneca a living tradition.

LONESOME

Marsha and Bruce Hall reminiscing with Barbara and Richard Doll.

Pat Richardson, "what is that?"

Friends reminiscing of "those good old days."

Eugene Stickler chatting with Marilyn Clampett O'Brien and her husband.

Class of 1966 Reunion

In early December I stopped by the party room at the Churchill Apartments to visit the Class of 1966 reunion. The ex-Redskins began arriving around 8:00 for the evening party. It was exciting to watch old classmates recognize and congratulate each other on their post high school experiences.

Phil Thompson, Joe Parrot, Larry Trunnel and his wife, Kathy Thomas Trunnel.

Three classmates pause for a smile.

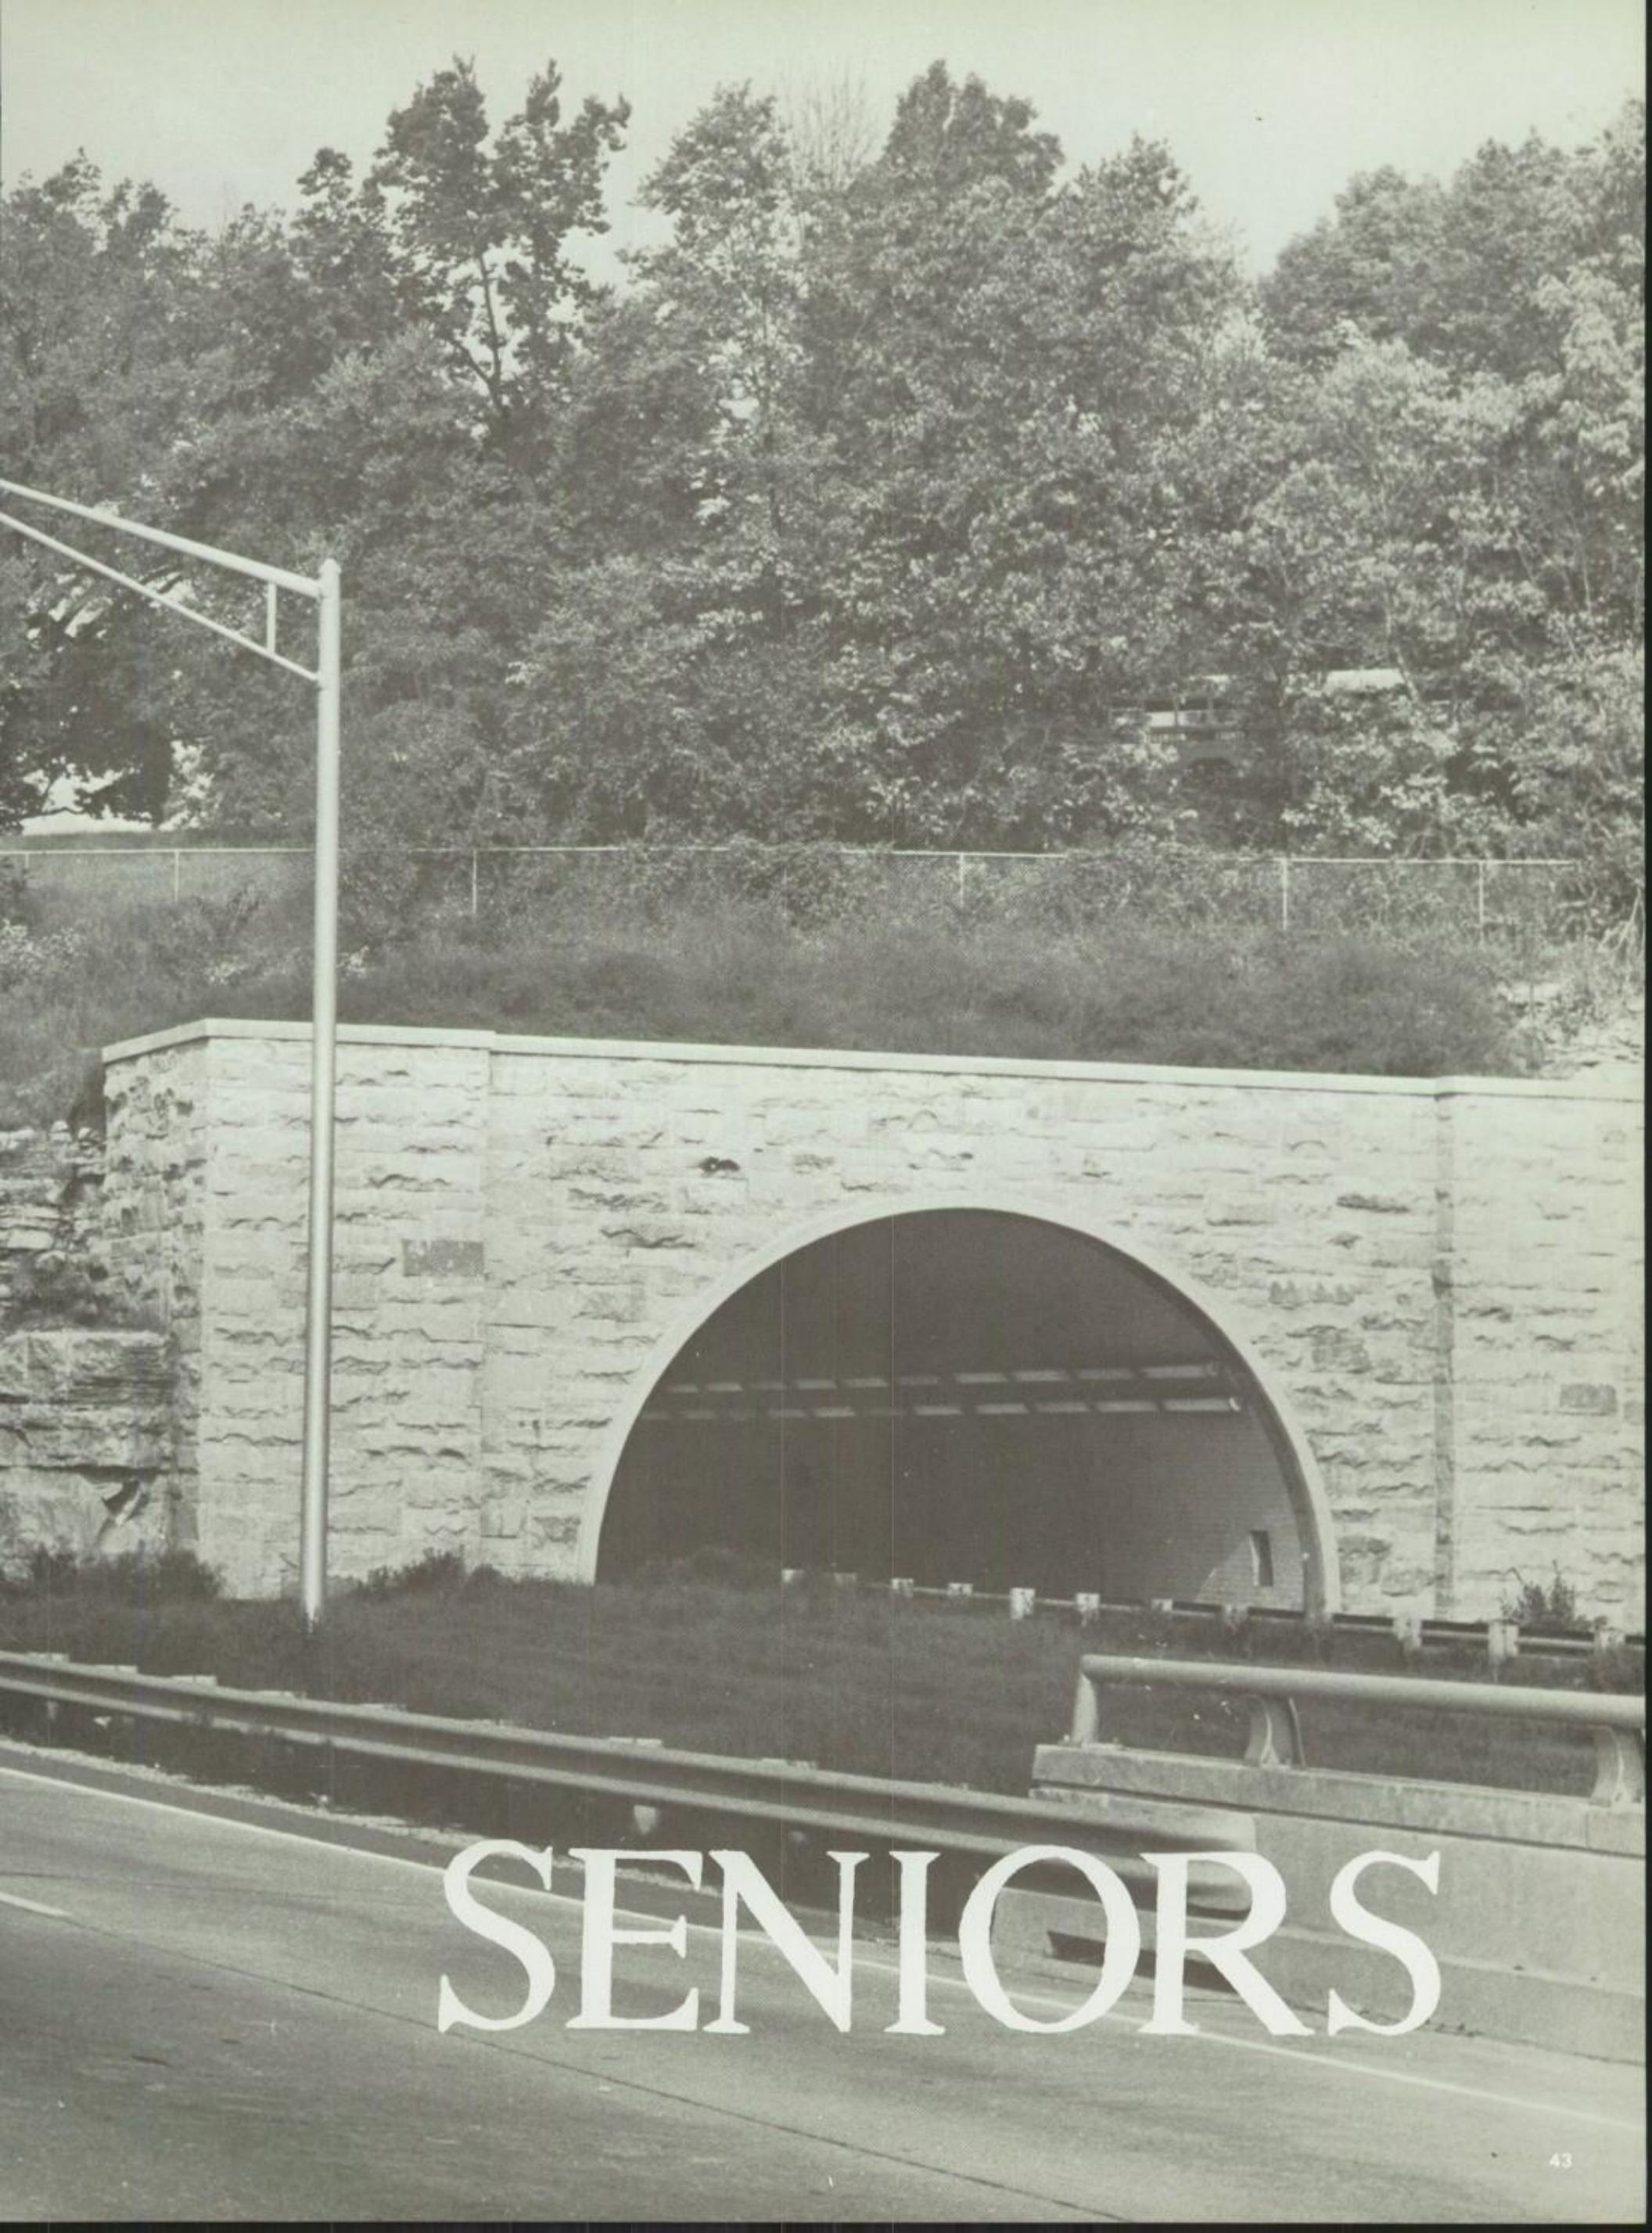

Oh! I remember you!

The Road Not Taken

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence;
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I -
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

SENIORS

A Day in the Life of a Senior

As the students arrive, a new day begins at Seneca.

Friends meet in the locker wells.

A hard day's work is underway.

Versatility is shown in drama class.

Enthusiasm is a main part of school life.

A welcomed interlude.

A lunch room of our own at last!

It is an "open eye" siesta.

Another day is finally over.

It is the end, Glenn!

In every senior class there are students behind the scenes who help to make the "wheels of success" turn. Many times their labors are performed silently and without fanfare. The numerous areas in which their hard work has been greatly appreciated include: scholastic achievements, Seneca's literary publications, student government, music, art, human relations, sports, foreign language clubs, majorettes, and in the production of the senior play. In recognition of their many contributions of time and effort for our class of 1972, WE SALUTE ...

In the 8th grade, the football team won the Gray-Y championship.

Jill Walton, the only 7th grade girl to be on the JCL Calendar.

Learning to fight the crowds in the halls was a major accomplishment.

As Seniors, let us review our past years at Seneca. It seems only yesterday that we entered these halls of learning which have and will continue to influence us as we travel the road to the future. Seventh grade was a period of adjustment to a new routine and way of life. We were a little scared at first, but the strange surroundings soon became familiar, and we soon learned how to master our combination locks. Our daily routine of Core, Math, Science, P.E., Home Ec., Shop, Music, and Art was a little monotonous at times, but for the most part, fun! In addition to studies, our Junior High days were filled with numerous extracurricular activities such as Gray-Y sports, cheerleading, Student Council, band, and orchestra. Beth Henry and Jill Walton represented us in the JCL Calendar contest. By the time spring rolled around, we were well assured of our positions as members of the Redskin tribe.

In autumn 1967, we re-entered Seneca, this time with a new prestige. As eighth graders, we were really the "seniors" of the Junior High. Assuming positions of leadership, Matt Gossage and Mike Farah were elected President and Treasurer respectively of the Student Council. To further our interest in education, an FTA was formed. Many boys took part in Gray-Y sports; interested girls became cheerleaders. Our Gray-Y Basketball team went undefeated, winning the Optimist Club Tourney in 1968.

in common, and many of us were selected to participate in the annual Jefferson County Music Festival. Beauty was again prevalent in our class as Melanie Shephard and Sandy Beaber were contestants in the Calendar Contest. Let us not forget the varsity basketball season of '67-'68 when Seneca was runner-up to Glasgow in the State Finals! The entire school was unified that spring, and we found ourselves caught up in the spirit and enthusiasm as much as the upperclassmen.

Thus ended our Junior High years. It all ended too soon, but we were anxiously looking ahead to our years in the Senior High. Steve Bush emerged as our Freshman Class President, guiding us on down the road to the future.

Steve Bush blocks another shot.

Upon entering high school, we were faced with the difficult transition from Junior to Senior High. Classes now changed every hour, and we found ourselves intermingled with many kinds of people. We were developing the attributes of future leaders and highlighted our school days with participation in extracurricular activities.

In the 9th and 10th grades, we were well represented in J.V. Cheerleading and Sports. Joe Wixson and Mike Farah played Varsity Football as Freshmen (remember State Championship '68, when we were runner up to Trinity?). In our Freshman and Sophomore years, several of us were members of the Student Council, the marching band, the Drill Corps, the FTA, language clubs, the debate team, ROTC, and other organizations. Many of us served as student, office, and library aides. As a result of our good academic work, some 100 of us became members of the Beta Club in our sophomore year, and several sophomores accepted positions on the Arrow and Sentinel Staffs. Varsity Sports produced several sophomore stars, including Gary Brewer in football and Steve Bush in basketball. Our class was well represented at the State Student Council Convention at Seneca (1969), in the JCL Calendar Contest, and in the Homecomings. As the year progressed, many of us who had been followers became leaders. Debbie Korfage was elected Secretary of the 1970-1971 Student Council, and Steve Bush became our class president for the third consecutive year. With capable leaders coming into their own, our Road to the Future was taking shape.

As Freshmen and Sophomores, we recognized the need to earn money for our Senior activities. We sponsored a successful car wash as Freshmen and the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance as Sophomores to raise funds. Dues drives were also conducted each year. With these things behind us, we were assured of a successful Senior year.

Our class ranked No. 1 in spirit - right from the start. As Freshmen we won a "spirit" contest held at Seneca. And at ballgames, our "V-I-C-T-O-R-Y, that's the Sophomore Battle Cry!" rang out loud and clear. Our spirit was to increase as the years progressed.

As our Sophomore year drew to a close, we began to realize the importance of school.

Jim Denny was elected NHS
President.

Eight juniors led the varsity basketball team.

In September, our class jerseys finally arrived.

The fine leadership of our junior class officers prepared us for our final year.

The day of the Junior Ring Assembly and Awards finally arrived, after many years of anxious waiting.

Greg Tandy, Student Council President.

We were Juniors! The junior year is the "almost" year - almost Seniors, that is! It was hard to believe that we had come this far in such a short time, and we took some time to look back. But we mostly looked ahead to our senior year, and all the activities - the Senior Play, prom, and graduation. We realized the need for a good sum of money in our treasury. With this in mind, we elected dependable and capable class officers who would help carry us to success. Our 1970-71 class officers were: Steve Bush, President; Doug Crutcher, Vice President; Beth Henry, Secretary; Mark Klein, Treasurer; and Cathy Nash and Ray Walker, Sergeants at Arms.

Junior participation in varsity sports was tremendous, especially in varsity football. Our football team posted a seven to three record, and had eighteen junior members, many of whom were starters. Gary Brewer and Bruce Campion received state honors for their hard work. With so many juniors returning to make up the 1971-72 team, we knew it would be even easier to roll over the opposition. Along with a good football team, we had Judy Calvert, Julia Ray, Susan Stairs, and Ann Lindsay as varsity cheerleaders. With a majority of juniors on the basketball and baseball teams, both accomplished a winning season.

The junior girls demonstrated their excellence in athletics with the formation of a girls' basketball team, and their participation on the hockey and football teams.

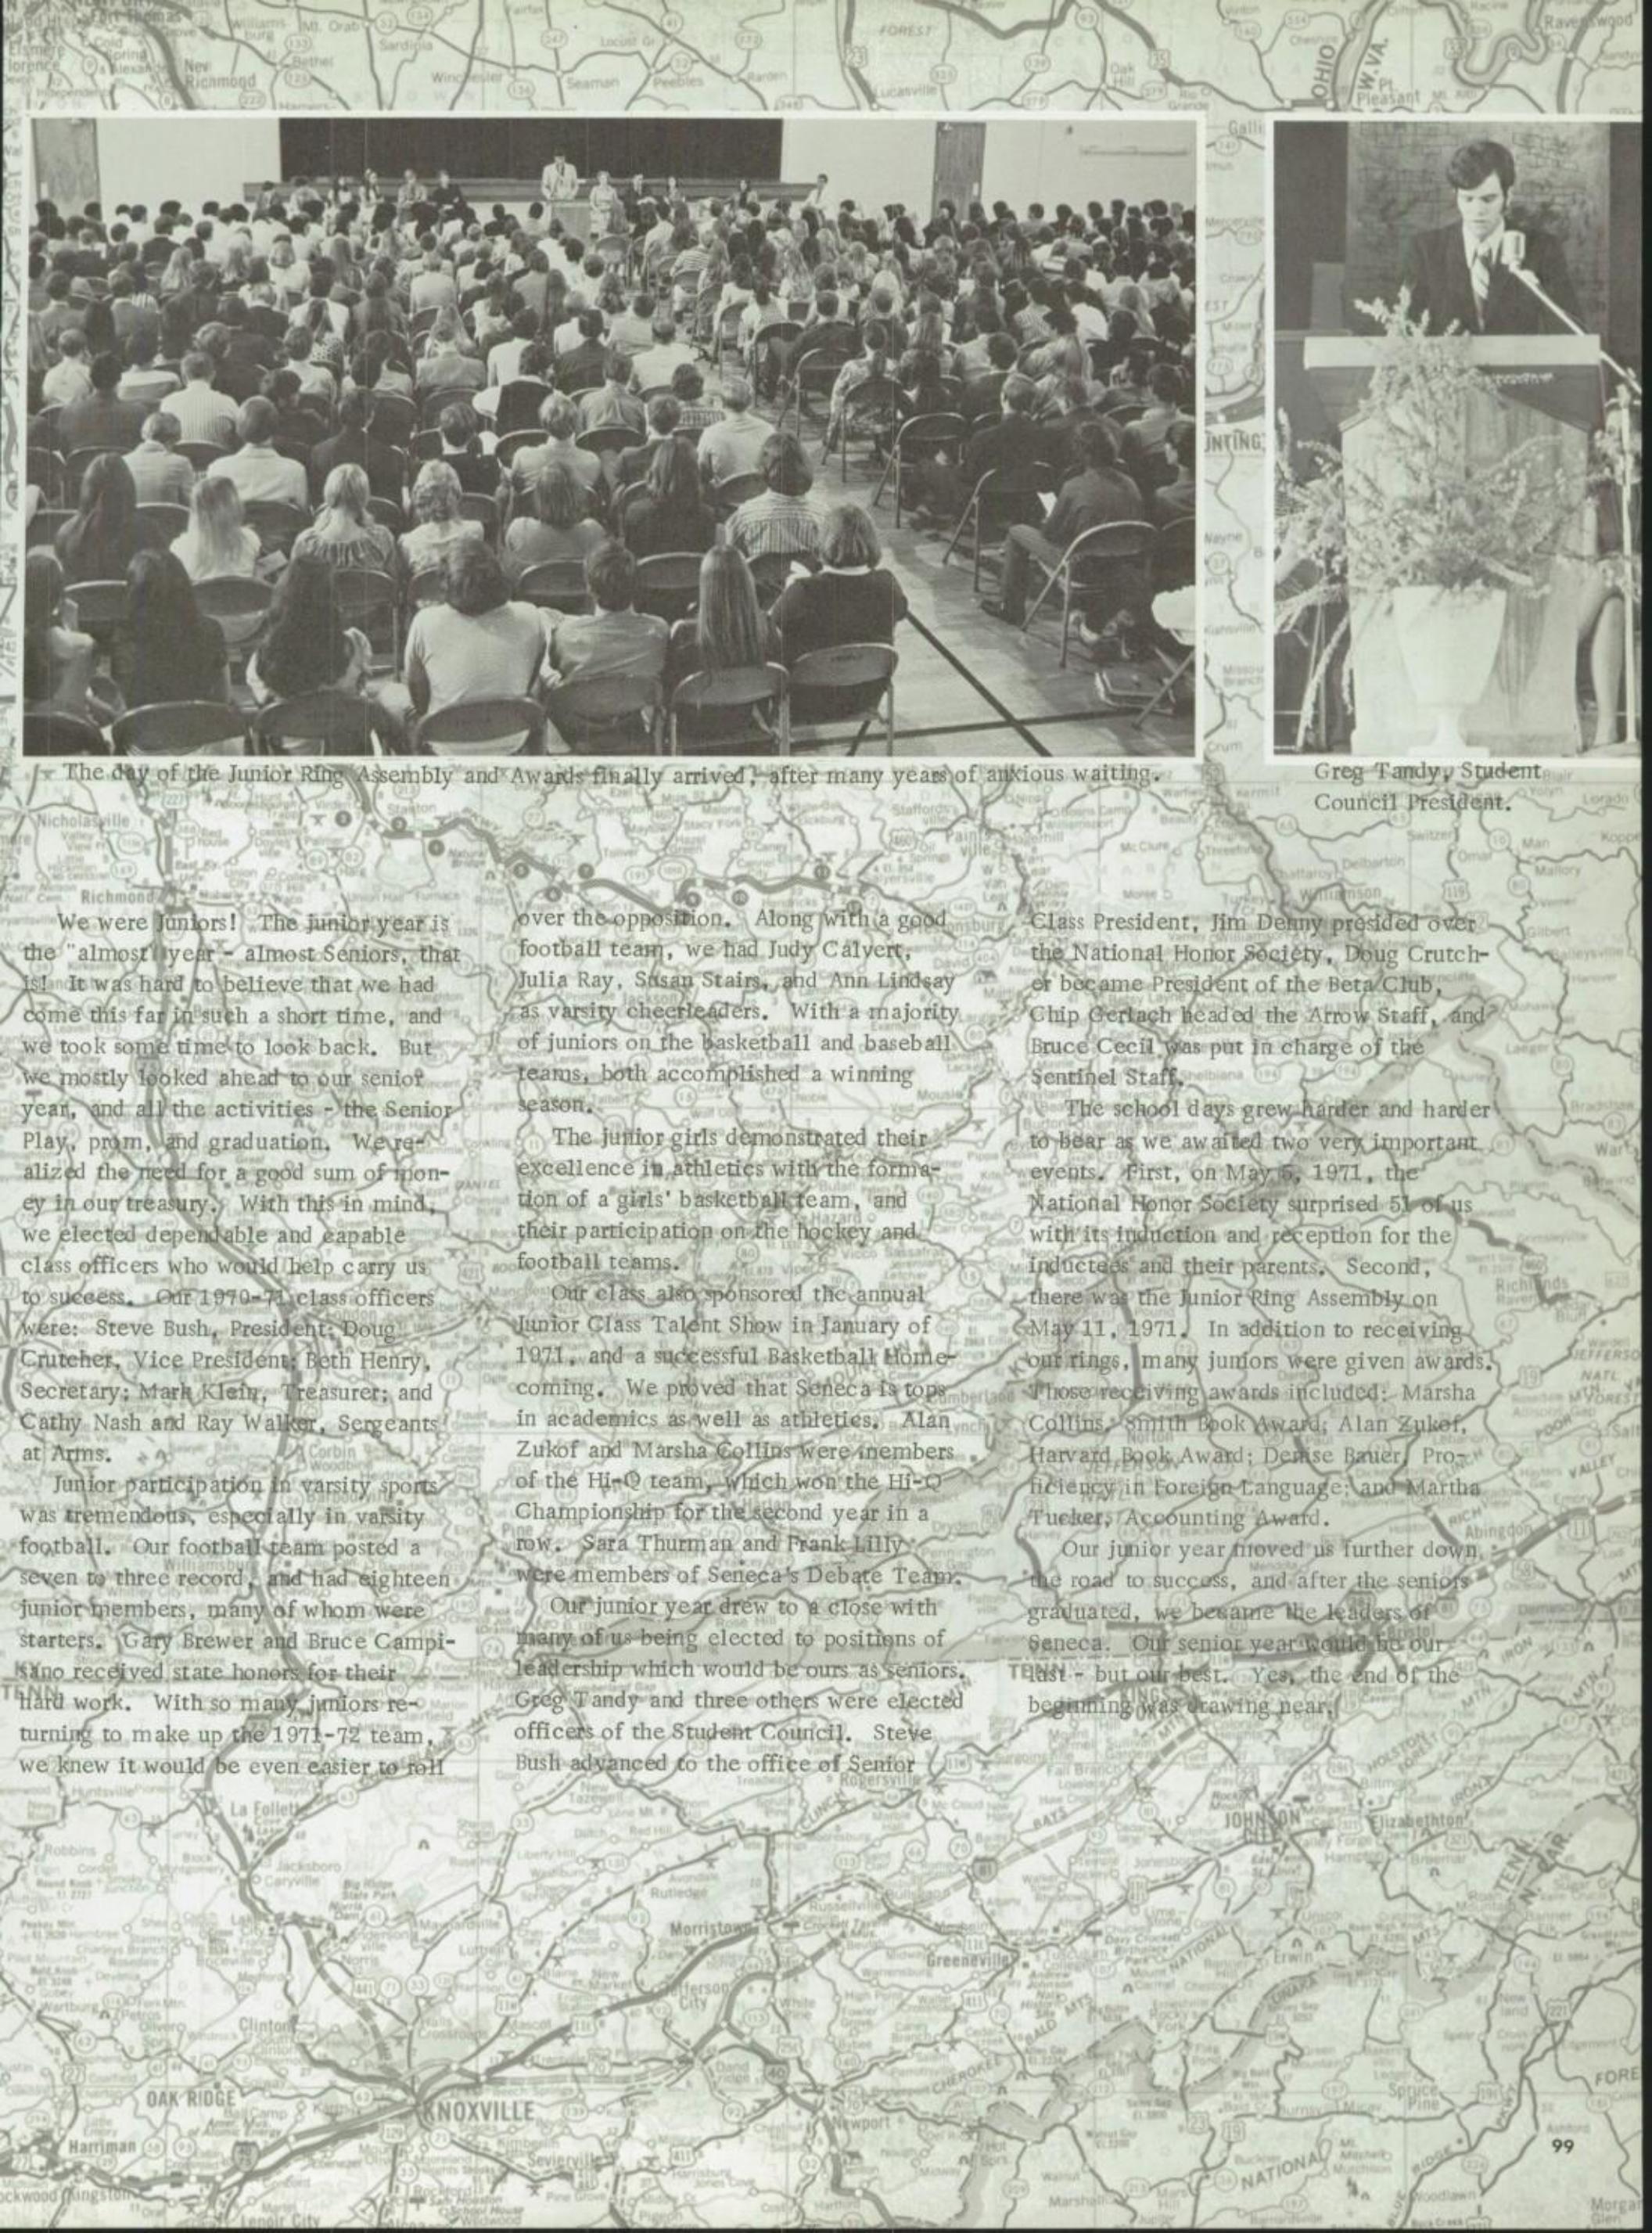

Our class also sponsored the annual Junior Class Talent Show in January of 1971, and a successful Basketball Homecoming. We proved that Seneca is tops in academics as well as athletics. Alan Zukof and Marsha Collins were members of the Hi-Q team, which won the Hi-Q Championship for the second year in a row. Sara Thurman and Frank Lilly were members of Seneca's Debate Team.

Our junior year drew to a close with many of us being elected to positions of leadership which would be ours as seniors. Greg Tandy and three others were elected officers of the Student Council. Steve Bush advanced to the office of Senior Class President, Jim Denny presided over the National Honor Society. Doug Crutcher became President of the Beta Club. Chip Gerlach headed the Arrow Staff, and Bruce Cecil was put in charge of the Sentinel Staff.

The school days grew harder and harder to bear as we awaited two very important events. First, on May 5, 1971, the National Honor Society surprised 51 of us with its induction and reception for the inductees and their parents. Second, there was the Junior Ring Assembly on May 11, 1971. In addition to receiving our rings, many juniors were given awards. Those receiving awards included: Marsha Collins - Smith Book Award; Alan Zukof, Harvard Book Award; Denise Bauer, Proficiency in Foreign Language; and Martha Tucker, Accounting Award.

Our junior year moved us further down the road to success, and after the seniors graduated, we became the leaders of Seneca. Our senior year would be our last - but our best. Yes, the end of the beginning was drawing near.

Miss Seneca

Debbie Korfhage

Whether it be making a vital two points in a basketball game, setting up a double play to win the baseball game, or presiding over one of our class assemblies, Steve Bush has always been an active part of Seneca. Ever since Steve came to Seneca, he has been involved in the athletic program. For the past three years he has been a starter on the Varsity basketball team, beginning his career by playing guard on the Gray-Y and the Freshman teams in Jr. High, and on the J.V. team his freshman year. Not only has he been involved in basketball, but Steve has also been the starting shortstop on our baseball team for the past four years. Athletics have not been all that Steve has contributed to Seneca. Due to his outstanding leadership he has been chosen our class president for the four years. Other organizations he has been involved in include the Pep Club, Student Council, Human Relations Committee, and the Beta Club. Although he is very busy with extra-curricular activities, Steve has been able to sustain a 3.3 academic average and is an outstanding choice for the title of

MR. SENECA 1972.

What qualities should a girl possess to qualify for the coveted Miss Seneca title? To name a few, she must be willing to sacrifice leisure time to take an active part in school affairs, attain high scholastic achievement as well as possess a magnetic personality, poise, and beauty. The Class of 1972 is proud to present their Miss Seneca, Debbie Korfhage. Throughout her years at Seneca she has made important contributions to the Student Council, serving as secretary in her junior year, and proceeding to the vice-presidency in her senior year. Hard work is the key to success as Debbie has proved in her three years on the Arrow Staff. Ranking high in accomplishments, she is a member of the NHS, of which she is treasurer. Not only is she tops in academics - her beauty and grace have entitled her to reign as the 1970 Basketball Princess, adorn the 1972 JCL Calendar, and march proudly for three years in the Drill Corps, of which she is Business Manager. What more could we add except to say that she possesses that intangible something that we call School Spirit!

During the summer preceding our senior year many of us held jobs or traveled for pleasure, while others were busy having Senior pictures made. When fall came, we were ready to become seniors and did so with enthusiasm. September found us busily adjusting to our schedules, conversing with old friends, and exclaiming over the fact that we were the oldest at last. We had a new principal, Luther McDowell, who, along with his assistant, James Burch, rekindled our school spirit and made Seneca a school to be proud of. Due partially to the improved spirit of the student body, our football team had a successful season. The 1971 squad, composed of 24 seniors, compiled a 9-2 record. As seniors we will never forget the many pep rallies and thrilling games when we cheered the team on to victory. The Football Homecoming, October 8, was a total success. Clarice Novicki was crowned queen and her court included Anita Founder, Theresa Overberg, Amy Slaven, and Janice Seger. Our class was again well represented in the JCL Calendar Contest. Theresa Overberg was selected Cover Girl and Julia Ray, Valerie Wilson, Beth Henry, Debbie Korfage, and Rochelle Handley were also selected to be on the calendar.

October and November found many of us involved in the production of "MAME," our senior play. Only an event as big as this could bring so many of us together. Rehearsals were long and tiring and sometimes ran as late as midnight. During school hours we were more dead than alive, but we loved every minute of it. Our lives centered around "MAME" as performance time drew near. On opening night we realized that the countless nights of work and practice had paid off, "MAME" was the most successful play ever presented at Seneca, with profits totaling $2000. After the play the basketball season began with the ECIT at Thanksgiving. The team, composed of seven seniors, was sure to have a successful season. Basketball Homecoming came around again. This year the court was composed of seniors Julia Ray and Judy Calvert, along with others, and Debbie Korfage was crowned the queen.

The long winter months found us engrossed in our studies and contemplating future plans. We still remember those mornings when we gathered at test centers to take our college boards. We had decisions to make about our future. Many of us would plunge into the stream of the business world. During the years we participated in all the important organizations, and we recognized the outstanding members of our class with the election of superlatives. Our academic accomplishments have left a lasting imprint on the Redskin slate of success. Marsha Collins was chosen one of the Outstanding High School English Students, and six seniors were National Merit Semi-Finalists.

Throughout the year we strived toward our supreme goal: the completion of a successful high school career. There were numerous executive board meetings during the year when we discussed prom sites, graduation speakers, and other topics concerning senior business. We will never forget the days when we stood in line to be measured for our caps and gowns, and when we received our graduation invitations. The spring months were most enjoyable; senior activities, the awards banquet, the prom, parties, and finally, graduation. Graduation was a big moment for us all, but it is only one milestone in a long road that we have just begun to travel. We have higher peaks to climb and larger goals to attain. We have reached the threshold of maturity and stepped onto a road which will guide us to new horizons.

As we build our lives in the Future, the memories of Seneca will always remain a part of our solid foundations. Good Luck to the Class of 1972!

Spring ROTC Review

Every year Seneca's ROTC Unit holds a Spring Review and Parade to demonstrate the knowledge attained throughout the year and to bestow honors on those worthy of them. ROTC Review '71 was especially good because five boys from Seneca received outstanding awards - Paul Pasky, Bruce Wolff, Mike Mahoney, Jim Meredith, and Alan Conner.

Those attending to present these awards were T. J. Borgman, Commander Charles D. Strout, Colonel James Ewing, Captain Don Smith, USMC, Colonel Cool, and Lieutenant Colonel H. C. Campbell, USMC, who presented to Alan Conner the Certificate of Achievement for a four year ROTC College Scholarship.

Graduating seniors receiving recognition were: First Lieutenant Alan Conner, Sergeant Prentis Williams, Cadet Roger Mullins and Cadet Dennis Lynch. Also on hand were the girl sponsors: Susan Raczkowski, Andrea Rabbeth, Jeanie Andrews, Diane Kelty, Kathy Bugg, Sandy Beaber, and Deane Aydt.

Paul Pasky is congratulated for Scholastic and Military Excellence.

Many distinguished guests were on hand for the occasion.

The end of regular season play drew near, and once again Football Homecoming was upon us. School spirit and enthusiasm had run rampant this whole year and all the excitement of the season was illustrated in our annual game with Waggener.

Our Redskins played great defense but scored just once to retreat to the locker room leading 6-0 at the half. The Drill Corps, Band, and Queen and Princess candidates with their escorts treated the large crowd with a lively half time ceremony. Clarice Novicki was crowned Queen from a lovely court including Theresa Overburg, Amy Slaven, Anita Founder, and Janice Seger. Laura Demling represented our underclassmen as Princess, while Connie Burks, Kim Bailey, and Karen Carr completed her court.

Bobby Butler crowns Clarice Novicki Queen for Football Homecoming '71.

The team proceeded to run the Wildcats back to Waggener in the 3rd and 4th quarter scoring 16 points on a defense of high repute and running away with victory No. 7, 22-6.

To complete a perfect evening, the game was followed by an equally successful dance featuring Ziegfield. Another great Football Homecoming had come to a close.

JCL Calendar Contest 1971

The Runners-up and the Escorts.

A sense of excitement filled the air on the day of the J.C.L. Calendar Contest. The contestants, consisting of Seneca's most beautiful girls, hurried into the old gym on October 12.

Mr. Stickler's room became a mecca where makeup and curlers seemed the criteria needed to obtain a spot among the beauties on the calendar.

As all contestants were introduced by Greg Tandy, master of ceremonies, and escorted out onto the floor, the student body applauded thirty-two excited and anxious girls who knew that only thirteen of them could be selected.

The hard task of judging was done by Mrs. John Boyle, Jo Armstrong Ross, and "Cactus" Tom Brooks.

Beth Henry displays the nervousness of preparation.

Doug Harper escorts a happy Debbie Clements.

Julia Ray adds those last minute touches.

Forrest Flaniken lends a helping hand to Bobbie Witt.

Theresa Overburg shows the thrill and excitement of Cover Girl.

Vicki Edwards and Pat Snyder lead the way for the Redskins.

'Tis the season to be jolly! To open the 1971 Christmas season, the Seneca Redskins participated in the annual Christmas Parade, promoted by the Retail Merchants Association and the Louisville Jaycees. Those Redskins who represented Seneca were the Drill Corps, the Varsity Cheerleaders, Football Homecoming Queen, Clarice Novicki, and the Pep Club. The Marching Band was also there and they made Seneca proud when they brought home the top award given to the best band in the parade. Though the weather was cold, all who participated radiated the warmth of Seneca Redskins.

"We love a parade."

Caryl Kline and friend display first prize.

The stage was set, the gym was filled, and the spotlight was on. What was the occasion? The 1971 Junior Class Talent Show, where the Redskins had an opportunity to demonstrate their many abilities. Each participant performed excellently and provided all who attended with an enjoyable evening. A new dimension was added this year. Hot Box girls were on hand to sell refreshments and to give door prizes which were generously donated by local stores. The evening was made more entertaining by the master of ceremonies, Mr. John Dickey. The acts were judged by Eugene Stickler, Orville Williams, and Linda Spurlock. The third place winners were Mark McDonald, Tom Prestiagocomo, and Greg Tandy. Second place went to Kitty Hall. The first place winner was Caryl Kline. The class of '73 deserves praise for its production of Talent Show '71.

The Queen and Princess reign supreme.

Homecoming "72" was a night to remember for all Seneca Redskins. During the basketball game the school's spirit was at its peak. Although the team was at its best, they were defeated by their opponent, Tates Creek, by a score of 72-66.

Halftime ceremonies began with an excellent performance by the Seneca Drill Corps, who formed a heart to surround the presentation of the homecoming queen and princess. The candidates for princess, Jackie Harris, Karen Carr, Donna Wells, and Monica Watkins waited excitedly with their escorts for the final announcement. The candidates for queen were Judy Calvert, Patty Collins, Julia Ray, and Debbie Korfage. When all was silent, Karen Carr, who was crowned princess, and Debbie Korfage, who was crowned queen, received bouquets of red roses.

The last event of the evening was the dance, featuring ROC. The band put on a great performance. The night went by quickly, with everyone enjoying themselves and having the best time ever.

Whatever Your Gift

*What is it that you hold in your hand?
Nothing you say? Look again.
Every hand holds some special gift-
A hammer, a broom, a pen,
A hoe, a scalpel, an artist's brush,
A needle, a microscope.
A violin's bow, a way with words
In the giving of faith and hope.
What is it that you hold in your hand?
Whatever your gift may be,
It can open your door to abundant life-
You hold in your hand the key.*

On May 5, 1971, the entire junior class assembled in the old gym for the National Honor Society Induction. All eyes were focused on the N.H.S. officers as they took turns lighting the candles of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service, the qualities in N.H.S. member must possess. As the eulogies were being read, many an anxious student felt his heart pounding and hoped the next name called would be his own.

The National Honor Society is the highest academic accolade one can achieve at Seneca, but it is not just a prestige organization. This year's projects included a highly successful paper drive in cooperation with the Student Council. The N.H.S. Tutoring Program shows that the members' main purpose is to help others. This year's officers did an excellent job in planning the projects and reaching the main objectives of the National Honor Society.

National Honor Society

The 1971-72 N.H.S. officers are: Vice-President, Rob Mazzoli; Secretary, Lorene Morey; President, Jim Denny; Treasurer, Debbie Korfhage; and Tutoring Chairman, Kathy Azzara.

Martha Tucker is selected as a member of the N.H.S.

Beta Club

The Seneca Beta Club, largest in the nation, is evidence that Seneca students can and do excel in academic achievement as well as athletics. As early as the beginning of the sophomore year, students maintaining a 3.2 grade average are eligible to become members of the Beta Club. Students are selected on the basis of character, achievement, and leadership.

This year, the induction ceremony took place in December in the old gym. The officers and executive board members, in turn, lit the candles of Honesty, Justice, Service, Cooperation, Responsibility, Industriousness, Humility, and Charity. Each inductee was individually called forward to receive his Beta Club pin and membership card. Next, the sponsors, Mrs. Barnes and Mr. Francis, offered their congratulations to the inductees. Mr. McDowell addressed the group concerning the quality and responsibility of leadership. He advised them to keep up their morale under strong criticism.

Every year, the Beta Club sponsors the Aurora, the school literary magazine, and the S-Book, a book describing the clubs and organizations of Seneca. Through these and other activities, the Beta Club of Seneca proves to be one of the school's major attributes.

BETA CLUB PLEDGE:

I solemnly declare that I shall always hold fast to the principles of honesty; to endeavor constantly to maintain a creditable record; to cultivate in my life and conduct the principles of service and leadership. I further pledge myself to cooperate with the members of the National Beta Club in the promotion of a sense of individual responsibility to our school, community, State, and Nation; to make right the master of might; and to consecrate our comradeship to mutual helpfulness and to the betterment of our fellow students.

National Merit Scholars

Each year, in February, juniors have the opportunity to take the National Merit Scholarship Test. Those who take the examination are tested on the knowledge they have of various high school subjects.

Students with scores in the top one percent of the state become National Merit Semi-Finalists. The Semi-Finalists are later asked to outline their future educational plans. They are then interviewed by the companies sponsoring the scholarships. If a student is accepted by a company, he becomes a finalist. The semi-finalists this year are Alan Zukof, Linda Branyon, Mark A. Klein, Maggie Kimbel, Paul Paskey, and Jan McGavic.

Students whose scores rank a few points lower than the semi-finalists', receive Letters of Commendation. The Letters of Commendation Winners this year are: Marsha Collins, Harry DeLoach, Frank Lilly, Mike McComas, and Bill Rubin.

J.C.L. Convention

On November 5, 1971, JCL chapters from all over the state gathered at Westport High School in Louisville for the 12th annual State Convention. Seneca High School was well represented with its members participating in contests and also having Merle Newlon, Seneca's JCL president, serving as the State Sec'y-Treasurer.

Seneca's Chapter of the JCL also attended the National JCL Convention this summer, which was held in Oklahoma where the chapter received awards in Derivatives. Second and third places in the 25 yard free style swimming meet were taken by Kathy Goff and another Kentucky participant.

Pictured below are winners of the State JCL Convention. They are: Gordon Homes, Janice Norenberg, Shelly Waugh - Roman Culture; Steve Balf, Rick Shuster - Greek History; Lucy Buch, Camille Norman, Steve O'Neil, Reed Weathers - Derivatives; Johnnie Cozine, Pam Duncan, Carol Fitzgerald - Mythology; Stanley Hodge - Roman Costume.

Modern Music Masters

Modern Music Masters is an Honorary society for Seneca students who have excelled in the field of music in the band, the orchestra, or one of the choral groups. The aim of this organization is to participate in musical events and to promote music in the community.

This year's officers are; Lynn Cox, President; Sandy Cohn, Vice-President; Brenda Rogers, Secretary-Treasurer; and Barbara Hatcher, Historian. Efforts are being made by the Society to raise money for a music scholarship fund and to induct more new members.

Quill and Scroll

Each year, members of the Sentinel, Aurora, and Arrow Staffs receive recognition for their outstanding work by being inducted into the Quill and Scroll. Membership in this organization is open to those who have served on one of these three staffs for at least a year. Many of the members of the Quill and Scroll will accept positions on college newspaper or yearbook staffs or on other publications. This year's officers are: President, Forrest Flaniken; Vice-President, Chip Gerlach; Secretary Teri Sharp. The sponsors are Miss Combes and Mrs. Kraft who along with Mrs. Barnes, the Aurora sponsor, train the Quill and Scroll members for their future years of work in the journalism fields.

Math Team and Other Honors

Seneca High Math Team

Martha Tucker, Terry Clark, and Brad Morrison were winners of business awards.

ALAN ZUKOF

Seneca's Math Team is composed of a very special group of students. The members are not only talented in mathematics, but endeavor constantly to broaden their knowledge of this subject. Belonging to this group is in itself an honor. Those who wish to become members must take an examination. Members are selected on the basis of their scores on this test. Three seniors, juniors, and sophomores are chosen, along with two alternates from each class. Sponsored by Mr. Otis Mays, the team participates in meets with other Jefferson County school teams.

Also pictured is Alan Zukof, winner of the Harvard University Award given to a junior boy.

Student Council

Surely the most active organization at Seneca is the Student Council, as it is representative of the entire student body. Through the cooperation and efforts of many students, it has inspired interest in school and community affairs.

Besides its school-year activities, the Student Council serves Seneca before the school term begins. One example is the program it launched to clean up the trophy cases and football field. The day before school, refreshments were provided by the Council for the teachers. The traditional activities of the Council, those being the Football Homecoming and the Christmas Basket Drive, were continued. The latter was met with generous response by the students. Other council-sponsored activities included the Christmas door decoration contest and the installation of a jukebox in the gym for the students' enjoyment.

Under the leadership of its conscientious officers, the Council has promoted and increased awareness among the students.

Not only are these girls talented and energetic, but they have what it takes to evoke school spirited responses from the crowds at all football and basketball games. Sponsored by Mrs. Harrison, this group has improved their skills by attending summer camp at Crescendo and various clinics. With girls like these, we will never lose when it comes to school spirit!

J.V. Cheerleaders

Our J.V. Cheerleaders are a definite asset to Seneca. These vivacious young ladies appeared at all the J.V. football and basketball games to cheer the team on to victory.

This year the cheerleaders won second place at the Western Kentucky University Cheerleading Clinic. At pep rallies, they encouraged us to stand up and cheer. Their sponsor, Miss Kinstler, gave the cheerleaders added support by helping the girls in every way. The cheerleaders exemplify typical Red-skin spirit.

The Sentinel

Ask any Seneca student what he looks forward to each month - he will answer, "The Sentinel!" Our school newspaper is an assortment of facts and opinions concerning the latest school activities, news, and topics of immediate interest to the student body. Its competent staff of editors, reporters, and photographers compile its pages for publication twice a month.

In the past eight years, the Sentinel has earned seven awards, the latest being first place in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association Awards. For their outstanding achievements in producing the Sentinel, a newspaper to be proud of, the staff, under the direction of Miss Barbara Combes, deserves recognition.

Debate Rifle and Youth Speaks

DEBATE TEAM

RIFLE TEAM

Seneca's Rifle Team consists of students interested in the use of rifles. This team of boys and girls practices during the week to ready themselves for participation in shooting meets. Sgt. Richard Conrad is the teams sponsor.

The Debate Team under sponsor Mr. Parker is worthwhile not only in that it trains young people to become good speakers, but it also provokes them to think about the issues they are confronted with daily.

Last year the team finished highly regarded, taking top honors locally and regionally.

Youth Speaks, under the leadership of Mrs. Waddell, continued to be a progressive organization at Seneca. These students are interested in achieving a link of communication between fellow students and associates.

Radio Club "S" Club Key Club

"S" CLUB

The Radio Club is the first ham radio station the school has had. The club is made up of ham radio operators and interested students. Sponsored by Mr. Purdy, the club has participated in contests, field day operations, and handled messages for students to family and friends across the country.

Athletics is the key word as far as the "S" Club is concerned. Members of this organization have at least one varsity letter from a sport offered at Seneca. These athletes contribute greatly to Seneca's accomplishments and victories in the field and on the court.

The Key Club is an organization that works with the Kiwanis Club to aid and benefit the community.

KEY CLUB

ART CLUB

GOOD NEWS

MATH CLUB

The Art Club, under the guidance of Mr. Raymond, upheld its traditional quality of fine work this year in an admirable fashion. The main interest of its twenty members was to acquaint themselves with art and artistic values for occupational uses. The contributions of the Art Club include a most artistic mosaic mural, lunchroom decorations, and a much needed display case.

Field trips and social activities were held under the direction of this year's officers. The Art Club has proved to be one of the finest contributing groups in its twelve year history at Seneca.

Art Club Good News Club Math Club

The Good News Club is comprised of approximately twenty members involved with spreading information concerning Jesus Christ. They provide Christian fellowship through pre-school morning meetings, which draw them closer to God. Plans for this year were to visit institutions for aged and orphaned, as well as to record devotions for WHAS Radio. The Good News Club is under the capable leadership of Mr. Charles Jackson.

Mu Alpha Theta, the Math Club, involves students in various activities concerning the field of mathematics. Those who attend the meetings have the opportunity to view films pertaining to math, hear speakers, or play math oriented games. This year's president was Alan Zukof and sponsor was Mr. Mays.

The Language Clubs

Events such as the International Dinner and Week, and a Fasching - a German festival, give German students a better understanding of the language and customs. Each year, the club earns enough money to award a scholarship for the most outstanding German student.

Third and fourth year students may participate in the singing group which performs for Louisville J. C.'s at Christmas.

The bursting of a pinata at the language department's Christmas Party, is evidence of the Spanish Club's participation. Later in the year, we find the members sampling an assortment of Spanish food at their annual dinner. These activities indicate the outgoing spirit of the Spanish Club, under the leadership of President, Marsha Collins.

The newly organized Russian Club planned many activities for the year. Two of them were their participation in the Christmas Party and their involvement in the festivities during International Week. The members and sponsors hope that the Russian Club will continue to contribute to Seneca's extra-curricular interests. The club's president is Linda Branyon.

Caesar's commentaries, Cicero's orations, men and women in togas! What are these things? Could it be ancient Rome, perhaps it is Seneca's chapter of the J.C.L.! The J.C.L. is dedicated to the culture of Rome and participates in conventions and money-making projects for scholarship awards.

A. V. AIDES

Seneca's Aides

Thanks to the A.V. aides, teachers and students are able to have a more interesting class period and school year. Under the guidance of Mrs. Ellis and Mrs. Cook, the A.V. aides serve as a vital department of Seneca.

With the help of library aides, students have a better understanding of the world of books and of the library. Their tasks may appear to be trivial; however, these duties aid in the smooth running of a school.

The office aides of Seneca have endless chores each day of the school year. These energetic students forfeit their time so that office affairs can run smoothly and efficiently.

Seneca's large T.V. classes are assisted by T.V. aides, who certainly contribute much to teachers by the many jobs they perform.

The Future Teachers of America helps students interested in the teaching profession to decide if it is the right career for them. The members learn more about teaching and its requirements through various activities.

President of F.T.A. is Kathy Azzara and the sponsors are Mrs. Duffy and Mrs. Meredith.

FBLA

Miss Turpin is the sponsor of the competent Future Business Leaders of America. The students are active in projects such as selling stationery and having a Christmas party for the Newburg Child Care Center. They strive, under her leadership, to understand the business world in which they intend to play a role.

F.B.L.A. continues to be a busy organization of Seneca.

FHA

The members of the Future Homemakers of America help individuals, the school, and the community with their consumer homemaking projects, such as giving a party for needy children during Christmas. The F.H.A. provides for personal development. The girls are supervised by Mrs. Hardin and Mrs. Schuble.

Logsdon, S. Swan.

1971 was a great year for our Seneca cindermen. Our men make running track look easy. But, their skill was the product of many weeks of repetitive action on the practicefield. The fighting Redskins compiled a 10-2 record, while winning the Eastern district and finishing third in AAA Competition. Seneca finished with 53 points, well ahead of Eastern with 32 points. Individual state qualifiers were Don Cook, Ralph Pettway, and our 880 relay team, consisting of Pettway, Holt, Wixson, and Randle. Randle also accomplished such feats as the high hurdles and the triple jump. In the Flaget Regional, which determined the state winner, Seneca standouts were Pettway in the 100 and 220-yard dashes, David Mayer in the shotput, Bill Randle in the 120-yard high hurdles and the triple jump, and of course, our 880 relay team. This team, like many others, did not suffer from graduation, and the young sophomores and juniors coming up through the ranks should add to Seneca's success in the future.

Girls' Track

Although the second year for the girls' track team was not a success, credit must be given them for their superb effort. Having gained a year of essential experience under the capable leadership of Coach Treadway, there were many standouts for the winning cause. Stars were Julia Ray with the shotput, Yvette Dorsey with the discus, and Elena Brazley in the hurdles.

The team is young, so the hard-earned experience will add to their success in the future.

Miss Richardson confers with the foe.

The 1971 girls' tennis team was sponsored by Miss Pat Richardson. There were approximately fifteen active members, with Robin Goldman as captain and Lori Eggers co-captain. The girls worked hard in organizing their team and began practice in April. They played in twelve matches during the season, and participated in the regional tournament. The tournament representatives, Jill Meehan in the singles, and Lori Eggers and Elaine Kremer in the doubles, played well but lost both matches.

Spring of 1971 marked a very successful season for Redskin netters. Coached by Mr. Williams, the team completed the season with a 9-1 record, including runner-up in the county. Seneca's only loss came at the hands of Ballard, who later won the county championship. Seneca's victims included such perennial powers as Waggener, Westport, and Atherton.

Prospects for spring 1972 are bright with only two seniors leaving the squad: Don Paper and Alan Plattus. Their positions were ably filled by Forrest Flaniken, Bevan Kushner, Mike Brody, Dan Ritchie, and several other returning underclassmen.

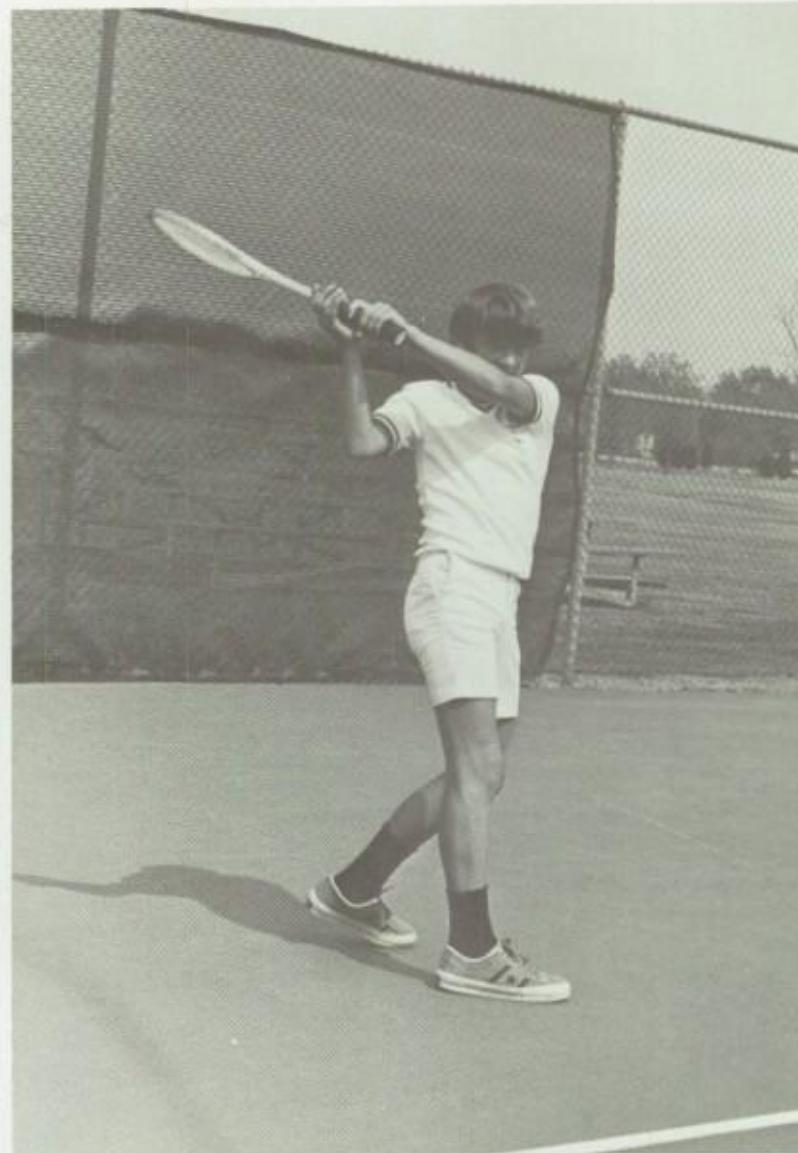

Lonesome is expecting the 1972 netters to erase their sole loss and come away with the County Championship.

The 1971 season for the J.V. Baseball team was a success. Under Coach Fox, the team posted a respectable 9-3 record. Through many hard weeks of practicing and seasoned play, the team developed into one of the best in Jefferson County.

With the talent possessed by the J.V. squad, the future for Varsity Baseball looks very promising.

Seneca's golf team had a fine season in 1971, compiling five wins against four losses. They also placed fifth in the regional meet in which fourteen teams participated.

In state competition, there are two meets - one for teams and one for individuals. To qualify for the team competition, the linksmen must finish either first or second in their region, and Seneca just missed qualification by four strokes. To qualify for the individual, one must finish in the first eight of the region. Jim Staats qualified for the state meet by tying for second place in the region, while Phil Denzinger just missed qualification by three strokes.

The Seneca golf team proved its outstanding capabilities when it recorded a score of 150, which was the second best score of any team in Jefferson County for the entire season.

The future looks bright for the Seneca golf team because Jim Staats, Phil Denzinger, and Eddie Busse will return for the 1972 season.

Seneca 8      Southern 6

On August 27, the Redskins opened their football season. It looked like a promising year for Seneca, and as it turned out, it was. But we had to open against Southern, with whom we had had trouble in the past.

History repeated itself as Southern had a 6-0 lead at halftime. Gary Brewer, who had a tremendous night, gained 89 yards in 20 carries, and scored the game's winning point. But it was Greg Dix who fell on a fumble in the endzone for the Seneca touchdown. Thus the Seneca Redskins were off to a running start with their first win.

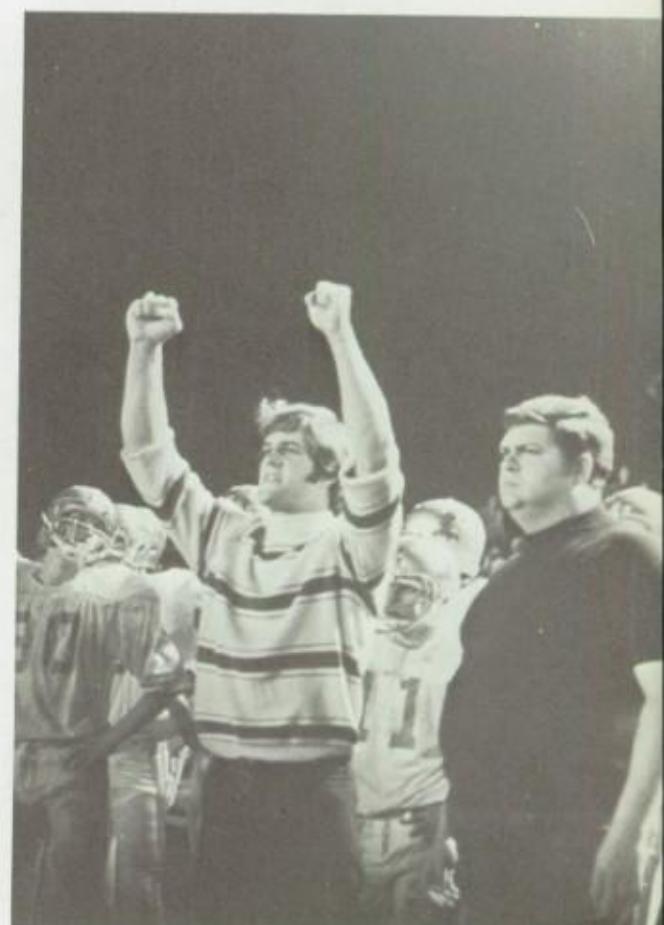

Mayer's kick splits the uprights.

Seneca 13      Fairdale 9

After Seneca defeated Southern in the first game, they were ready to take on the Fairdale Bulldogs, not a district game for Seneca, but an important game for the morale of the team. From the opening kickoff until the final whistle ending the game, it was an electrifying performance with neither team putting many points on the scoreboard. The only score in the first half resulted from a 17-yard run by Leo Nathanson and the conversion by David Mayer. The second half started out in the same way as the first, but then Fairdale scored in the third quarter with a touchdown and field goal. Seneca scored on a run by Rick Furino to win the game, 13-9.

Seneca 12      Ballard 6

This was an important game for both teams. Winning by narrow margins in its previous games, Seneca was up against a potent Ballard. Ballard led throughout the first half, 6-0, until Billy Jones fell on a fumble in the endzone, tying the game at 6-6. Then Gary Garrity combined with Gary Brewer to move the team to within twenty yards of the Ballard endzone. The drive climaxed with a touchdown run by Leo Nathanson, winning the game, 12-6.

Exhilaration and concern.

Seneca 38                    Westport 6
No one knew better than Coach Gebhart that the time had come for Seneca's unsung heroes to prove themselves worthy. Every man was emptied into battle and the result was the trouncing of Westport. Of the many Redskins who played, Brewer, Beckham, and Nathanson did the most damage. Each of them scored a touchdown. The speedy Redskins churned up 251 yards to Westport's 12. As the game ended, Coach Gebhart was left saying, "The kids could have looked past Westport, but they didn't. We needed to win the way we did."

Seneca 8                    T. J. 28
It was the battle of the unbeatens at Seneca Field. The Redskins pitted themselves against arch-rival Thomas Jefferson. T. J. scored the first three times they had the ball, on runs by Mike Northington. Seneca sprinter Doug Beckham ran the ball only four times in the game, but his brilliant 38-yard run set up the lone Redskin touchdown. Gary Brewer lunged over for the two-point conversion. Later Northington scored another touchdown in the fourth quarter to end the game 28-8, Seneca's first loss in five games.

Nathanson scrambles for extra yardage.

Seneca 30                    J-town 9
The taste of last week's defeat was still sensed as Seneca sluggishly opened the game against the Chargers. J-town jumped to an early lead, 9-0, but Gary Garrity passed to Bill Pence, after a J-town fumble, for a touchdown. Seneca's Leo Nathanson scored on a three-yard run in the third quarter. It was all over for J-town as Seneca scored twice more before the gun sounded. The 30 points were the best output of the Redskins as they were off on the winning trail again.

Seneca secondary at their best.

Seneca 22 Waggener 8
Fighting off a late bid by Waggener to spoil our Homecoming, the Redskins boosted their record to 6-1 by downing the Wildcats. The scoring opened when a Waggener snap from center sailed out of the endzone for a safety, as they attempted to punt. Seneca led at the end of the first half, 2-0. Striking twice in the third quarter, The Redskins led 16-0. The touchdowns came on a punt return by Leo Nathanson and a 54 yard run by Gary Brewer. The conversion was added by Billy Jones on a pass from Gary Garrity. The next game would be with undefeated Eastern, for the district title.

Seneca 18 Eastern 6
Seneca gained the fourth district crown by springing to a surprising victory over the previously undefeated Eagles. After a scoreless first half, the Redskins got a foot in the door when Virgil Robinson scooped up an Eastern fumble at the Eastern 18 yard line early in the third quarter. Two plays later Gary Brewer went crashing in from the 16 yard line. Seneca dominated the play throughout the game rolling up 214 yards to Eastern's 79. Others starring were Bill Pence, who recovered a fumble in the endzone, and Bruce Campisano, who led the defense in its regular patterns.

Coaches discuss the situation.

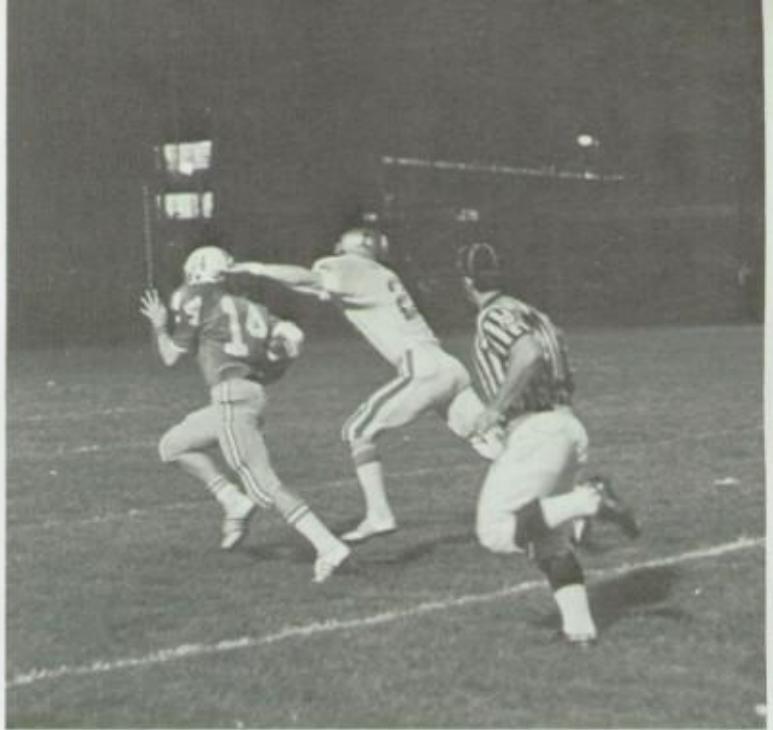

Seneca 20 Butler 0
In the next game of the season the Red-skin defense, which had been tough and effective all year, finally managed a shut-out. It came against Butler, the district one champion. After a hard fought first half, which only saw one scoring play, a five yard run by Leo Nathanson, Seneca broke the game open in the fourth quarter with two touchdowns. The first was a brilliant 28 yard run by Doug Beckham, and the second was a five yard sweep by Leo Nathanson for his second score. A two point conversion was added on a pass to Virgil Robinson from Gary Garrity, making the score 20-0.

Seneca 34

The night, October 29, 1971, was filled with an air of excitement as the kickoff approached. This was the last game of Seneca's regular season, and also the last game on the home ground for the seniors. Seneca was out to avenge its 1968 defeat by Trinity in the State Championship. Seneca led throughout the first half, and as the squad left, the score stood at 28-6. However, the second half was entirely different. Trinity proved to be determined opponents as they scored 20 points to Seneca's 6. With the win, the Redskins were headed to the Fairgrounds for the County East Championship.

Trinity 26

Thomas Jefferson 35

After winning their respective districts, the stage was set for the game of the year. T.J., with a 9-0 record, faced our Seneca Redskins with a 9-1 record. The Redskins' only setback was against T.J. earlier in the season. The spirit was high for both teams as 9,000 fans packed into Fairgrounds Stadium.

After a scoreless first quarter, T.J. jumped out to a 14-0 lead at halftime on touchdowns by Mike Northington, who was the leading rusher for the Patriots.

Leo Nathanson, Seneca's top scorer, separated his shoulder the first time Seneca had the ball, hurting the Redskin offense considerably.

Gary Brewer ran the ball only twice the first half, but became the workhorse in the second half. He carried the ball 20 times for 100 yards during the game.

The Redskins scored on two 63 yard drives in the last two quarters. Brewer wrapped up both drives with runs of six yards, while T.J. cashed in on three Seneca errors.

Thus the struggle to the top was cut short, and the season came to a close.

J.V. Football 1971

The J. V. Football team ended the season with a promising outlook for next year's varsity team. Posting a 3-2 won-loss record, the Redskins sparkled in both offense and defense. Sophomore David Meehan carried much of the load, leading the team in rushing. The defensive unit was outstanding, as they allowed only 38 points in five games. Beating J-Town, Waggener, and Eastern, they lost to Ballard and T. J.

The art of fencing has increased in popularity this year among junior and senior high students. After completing a series of lessons instructed by Monsieur Coeur, the fencers join the team and participate in competition. In the fall, Seneca's fencing team beat Doss High School by a score of 3-2. The Seneca fencing team successfully sponsored a national competition in December. It was attended by students from many states and proved to be a successful money-making project.

Evans over to Bush, inside to Cosby who maneuvers for an easy two points. This is an example of the teamwork the Redskins displayed on the basketball court throughout the season.

Under the brilliant coaching of head coach George Unseld and assistant coaches Van Stinnett and Max Davis, the Redskins put together a well balanced team. With a front line varying between Cosby, Silverman, Randle, Tillett, and Jolly, a shifty backcourt of Bush and Evans, a strong bench, and a pesky defense, the Redskins played top rated Basketball. As well as showing their talent on the court, the team showed great sportsmanship, taking their defeats as an experience and not a total loss. With the return of Junior lettermen and a fine J.V. team coming up, the future will be full of many Redskin victories.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

The 1972 Junior Varsity B-ball team showed the Redskin fans that a bright future is in sight for the varsity squad. Coached by Mr. Stinnett, the talented junior and sophomore players gained valuable experience in competition against other teams.

There was a lot of exciting action in the J.V. games which preceded the varsity contests, and many times the Redskins came out on top. Junior Dave Tillet and sophomore Cary Lawhon are two of the many sparks that are capable of igniting a championship fire in the immediate future.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The Freshman Basketball team enjoyed another successful season this year. Under the careful guidance of Coach Hagan, these young players learned many of the basic fundamentals of the game, which could lead them to the road to being future Redskin stars. While enjoying spirited competition against other schools, they also learned about the game. This fine group of representatives of the class of "75" is further proof of Redskin prowess in all fields. Improving steadily, the Freshman squad assures us that success is a certainty for Seneca's Basketball future.

Many of his editorials which have appeared in the weekly newspaper have proved critically beneficial to the Louisville-Jefferson County area.

In 1969, Peter was elected to the state House of Representatives seat from the 33rd legislative district on the Democratic Party ticket. During his term he has been an active member of Kentucky's largest governing body. Lonesome can certainly be proud of the accomplishments of this member of the Class of 1961.

Adele Gleaves, class of 1971, represents the United States in international gymnastic competition. Some of Adele's past achievements include her participation on the U.S. team in the World Gymnastics Championships in Ljubljana, Yugoslavia. She achieved second place standing for high scorer on the U.S. team, and placed 33rd in world competition. Adele participated against a broader field of gymnasts at the Pan American games, which had entries from both North and South America. She is expected to compete in the World Olympics, which will be held in 1972.

We salute Adele as a true Redskin and wish her success in the future.

SENECA HIGH SCHOOL

The Junior class has made good progress on Success Boulevard this year. With the Executive Board doing the chores that are necessary to create a magnificent Talent Show and sponsor a colorful and enjoyable Basketball Homecoming, the Juniors rate a sound round of applause. The officers deserve credit for their successful idea concerning dues collections with which the class members cooperated smoothly. The Junior Class leaders are President, Tom McKenzie; Vice-President, David May; Treasurer, Cindy Stone; Secretary, Susie Spurlock; Sgt. at Arms, Charlie Walls and Mike Goldring.

"I passed my driving test this morning, so, look out, world, here I come!"

Through the Looking Glass.

The Challenge

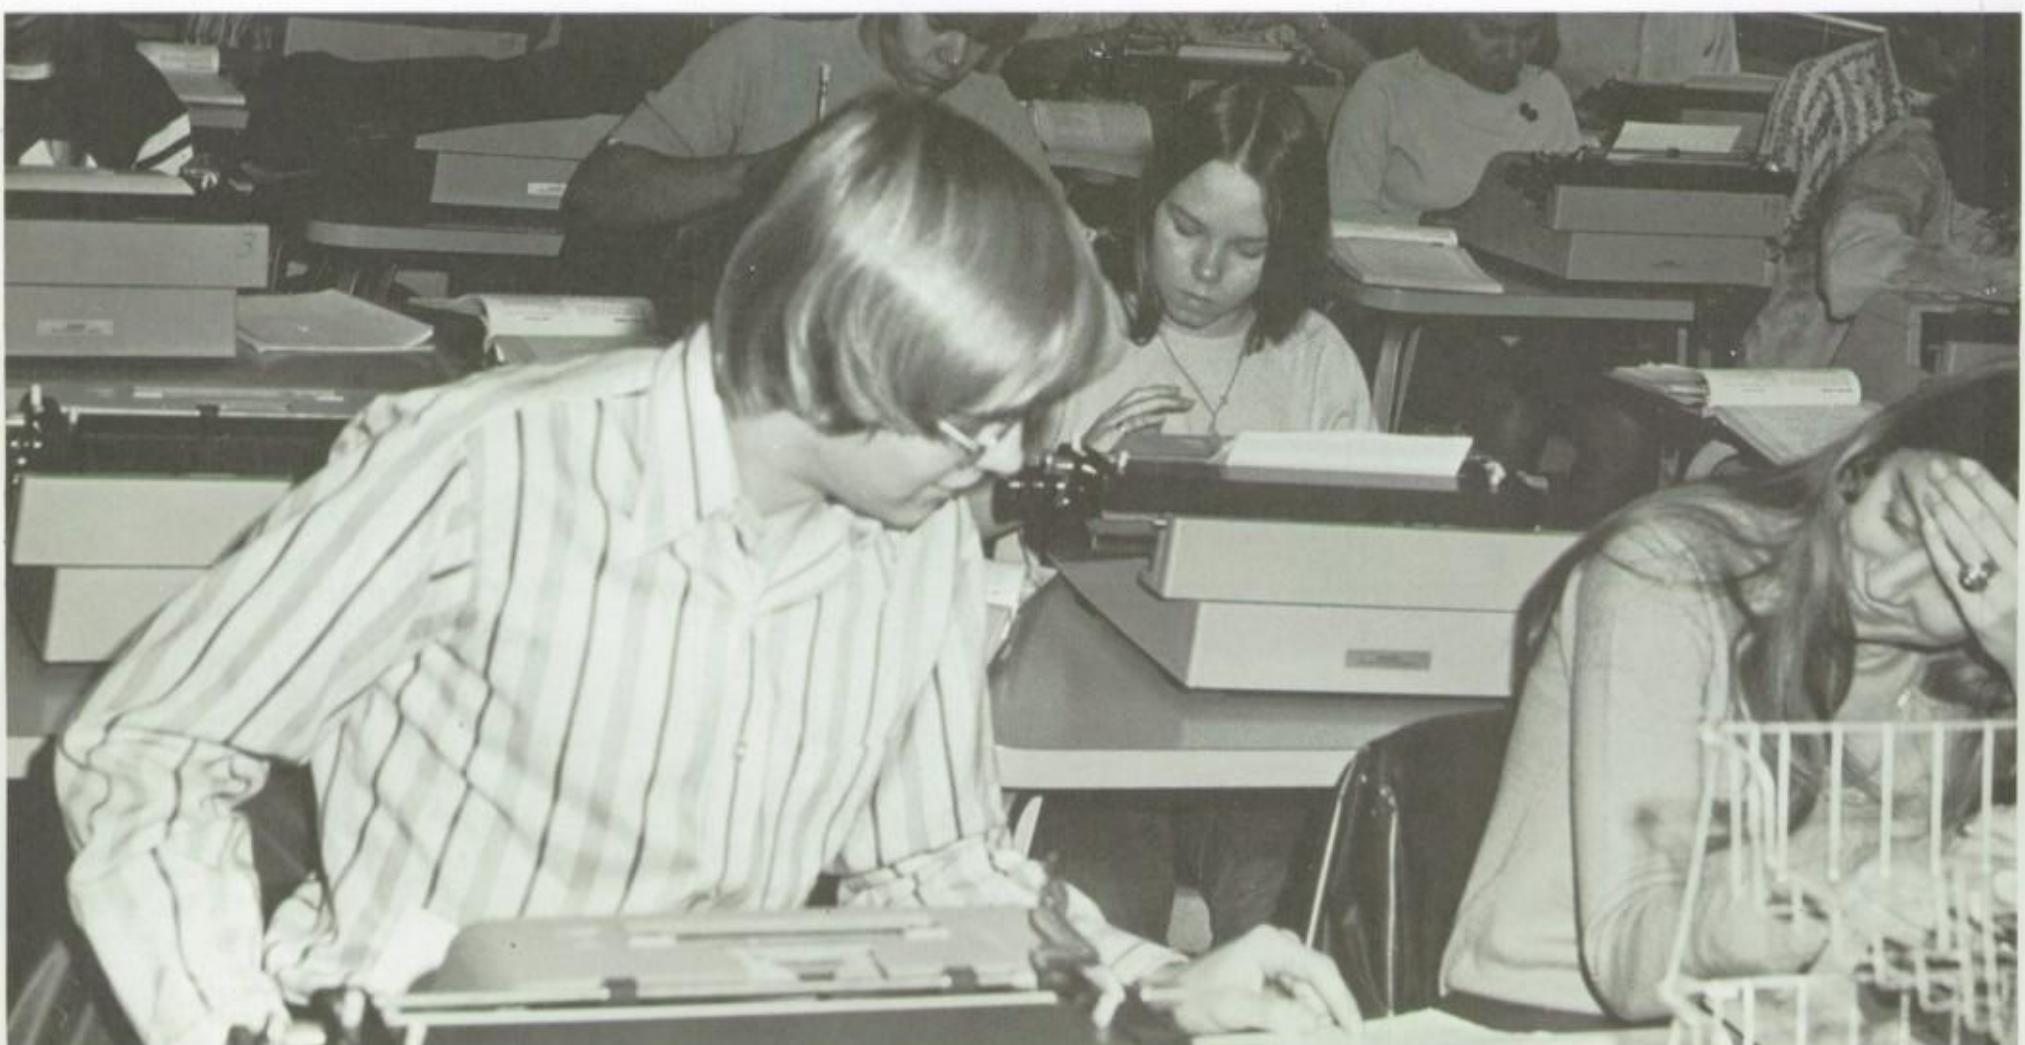

A Seneca harlequin meditates.

"Eyes front and center, class."

"Now you are catching on, ladies. Good work."

That means margin clear, Kim, not margin set.

Linda, I'm a really great friend. Please always stay my friend. Cause I really need ya kid! Especially while I guy's gone away. anyway I forgot this mushy stuff and stay as cute and sweet as you are, forever. Good luck though man, he really sounds like a cool, sweet guy. I haven't got much to say, cause with man, he really good, so I can't write in yearbooks very good, so let's stay the best of all's I'll say is love ya always!

Grade 10

When entering a new territory, the stranger must always be wary and quite careful about the route he selects. Failure Lane is enticing because it presents what seems to be Funland. Here there are no academic problems because the travelers do not bother to work. Take the road to Success as these freshmen did. Establish yourself as both a student and a participant in activities if you can do it. Don't take on too much, be selective and you will succeed as you go along your path. Officers of the Freshman Class of 1971-72 are: President, Ted Collins; Vice-President, Karen Bybee; Secretary, Debbie Zukof; Treasurer, Linda Fisher; Sgt. at Arms, Micky Vick and David Jones.

Junior High Administration

The Seneca Junior High School is under the capable and responsible leadership of assistant principal, Lonnie Glasgow. Assisting him in the task of running the office are Mr. McCarthy, Mrs. Gale, and Mrs. Gleaves.

Mrs. Gale and Mr. McCarthy, as the student's counselors, are willing to help solve any problems the students may have. Mrs. Gleaves, along with the handling of office affairs, serves as Mr. Glasgow's secretary.

These people, along with the faculty, have helped the Junior High to successfully complete another year.

A time to think, study, and plan.

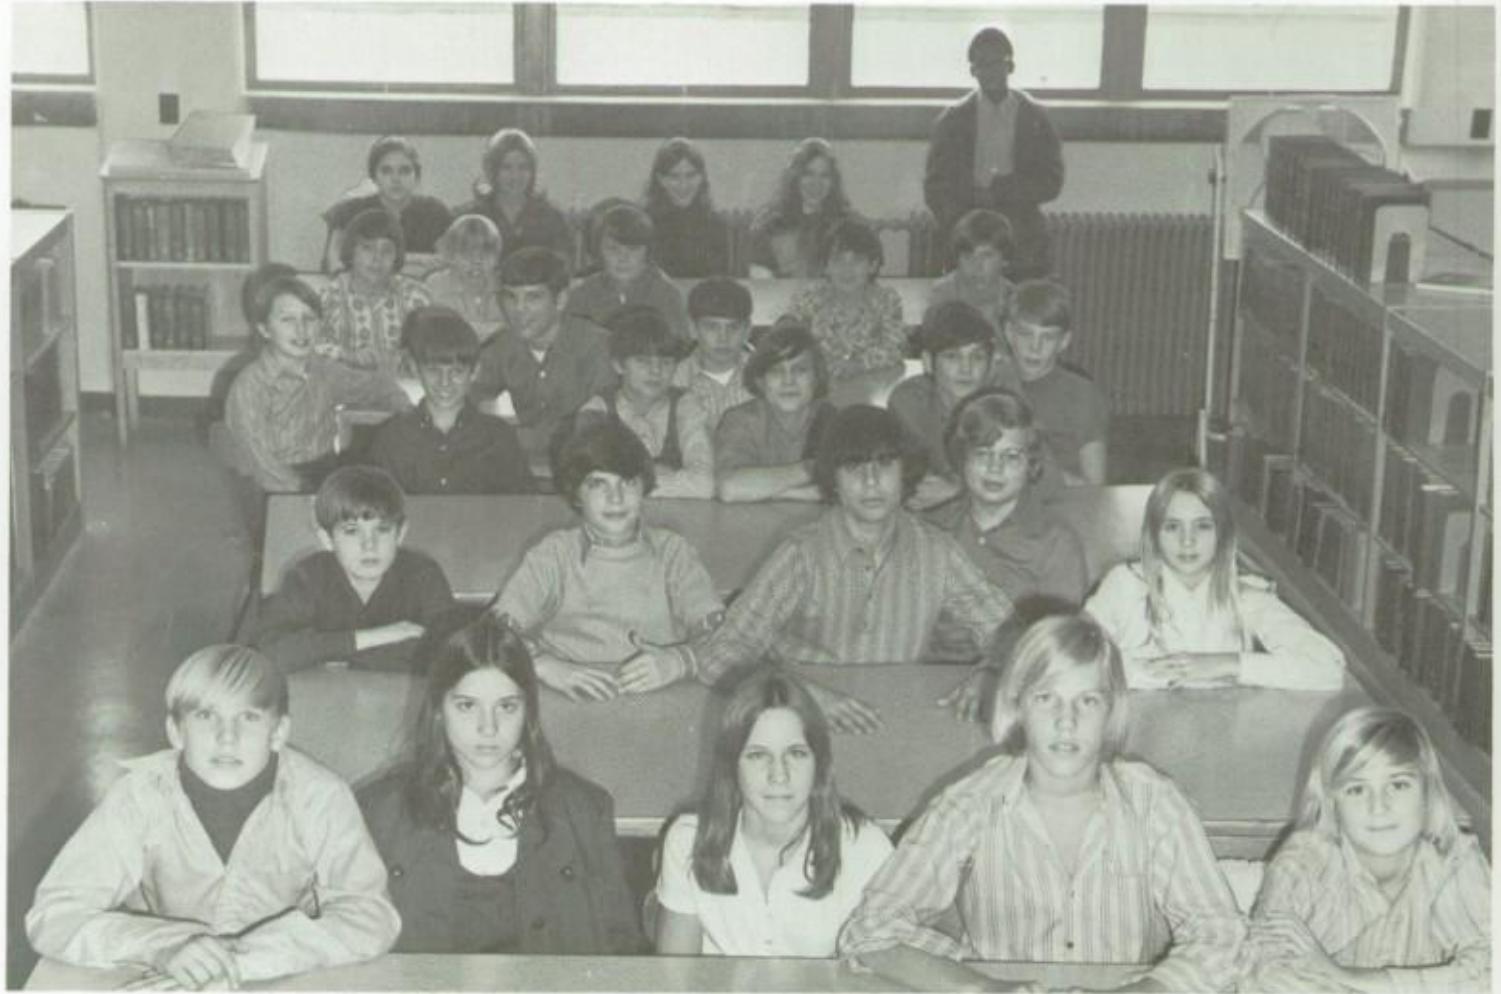

We love assemblies.

Junior High

The Student Council Representatives

From the annual Thanksgiving Basket Drive, to the Valentine Dance, to an Easter project, and finally, preparations for coming elections, the members of the Junior High Student Council are kept busy. Sponsors, Mrs. Newell and Mrs. Douglas, report that participation and enthusiasm this year are excellent.

One council representative and one alternate are chosen from each English class. This year's officers are: Chip Grosse, President; Rusty Eden, Vice-President; Cindy Corbin, Secretary; and Marc Noonan, Treasurer.

The council serves as a bridge between the administration and the student body. The members encourage spirit in school activities and demonstrate student responsibility.

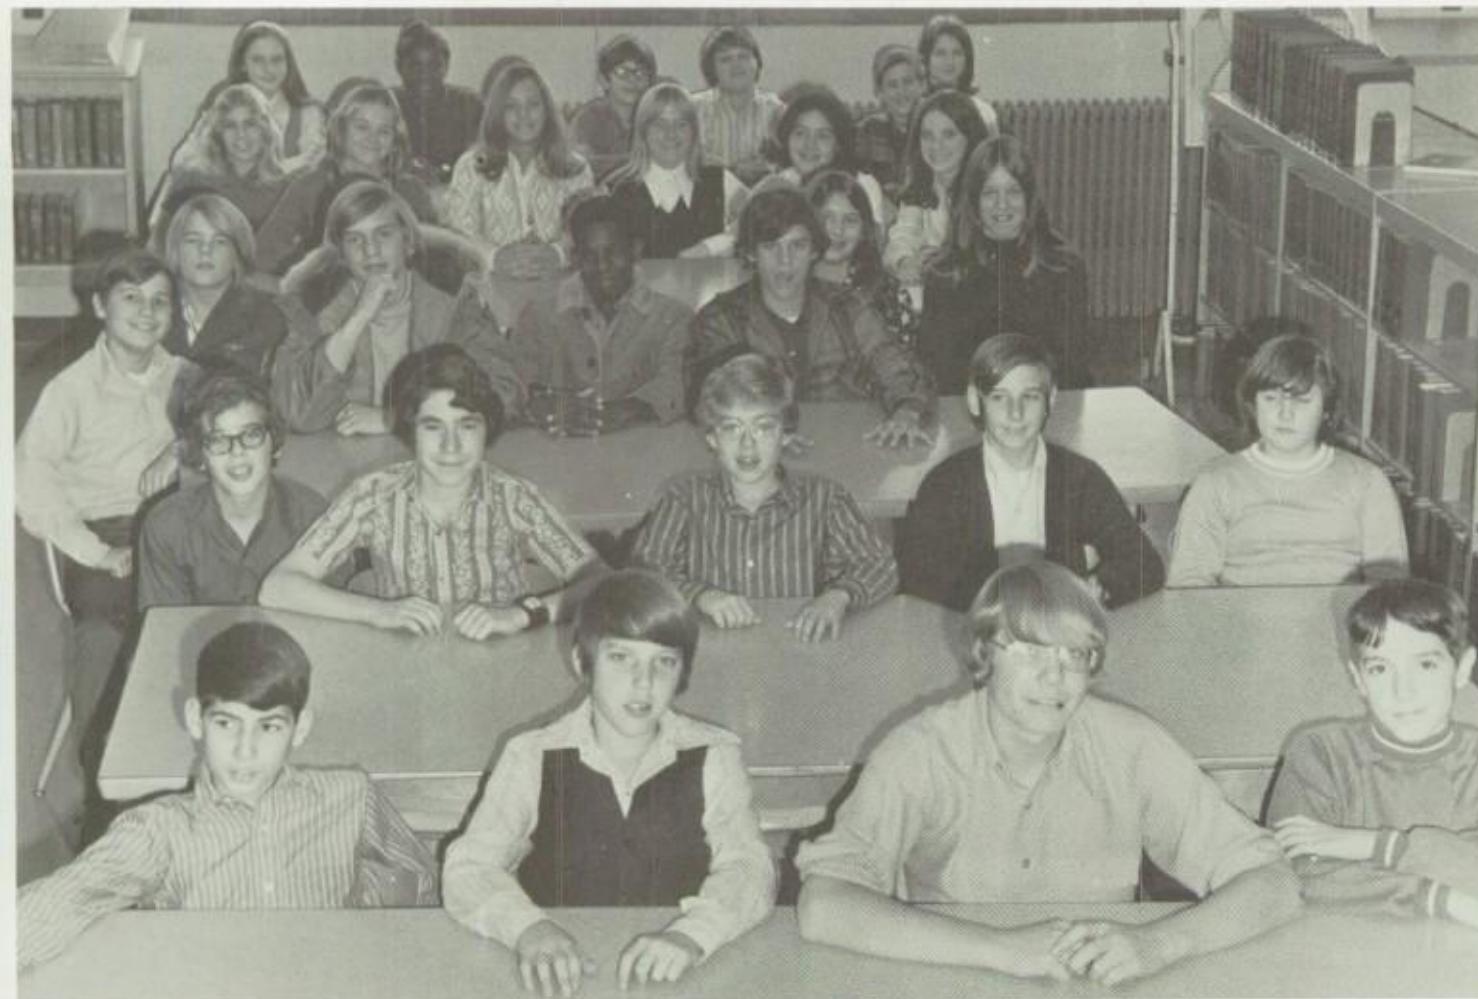

The Junior High Student Council is a vital organization creating initiative that may lead to later becoming interested in activities of the Senior High Student Council.

Student Council

The Student Council Alternates

The annual Kentucky Youth Assembly was held this year in Frankfort, October 22-24. The Seneca delegation spent these three fun-filled days in that city's Travelodge.

The twenty-eight Redskin seventh, eighth, and ninth graders who attended participated in the election of officers and the passing of laws, as they enacted the roles of government officials. Greg Davidson, Seneca's candidate for governor, was defeated in the final balloting.

Anyone who wished to take part could do so. These students, who expressed their interest in current affairs and today's government problems, will become the leading citizens of tomorrow. The Assembly proved to be a worthwhile experience for all concerned, as it made the legislative system come alive for them.

Thanks to all who helped make this year's Assembly one of the best ever!

1971-72 was the third year for the Junior High newspaper, the Papoose. The Sponsor was Mrs. Sharp and Editor was Hillel Baldwin. The Papoose provides room for Junior High viewpoint and activities. This paper sells for only a dime, a real bargain!

Lonesome can be proud of another hardworking group, the Junior Red Cross. They fulfill their purpose of helping others by sending boxes overseas and distributing food for needy families in the local area at Christmas. Sponsors of this worthwhile group are Miss Elder and Miss Taylor.

Although the Junior Varsity Debate Team has only twelve members, from both Junior and Senior High, it did an impressive job against other Jefferson County Schools. The seven interscholastic debates gave the members valuable experience, which should prove profitable in Senior debating. The Sponsor is Mrs. Brown.

SP-IR-IT Got spirit? Well, let's hear it!

The Gray-Y Tackle Football Team and Coaches

Participation

This year, participation was the word in Junior High Sports. Beginning this year was the Gray-Y tackle football team, coached by Mr. Jim Karem. Comprised of boys 14 and under, and sponsored by the Highland YMCA, the team did extremely well this season. Their victory over a tough Thomas Jefferson team climaxed the year.

Filling out the sports calendar was basketball, which was well represented by three teams: The Hi-Y, coached by Mr. John Cubine and also sponsored by the Highland YMCA, and the seventh and eighth grade teams, coached by Mr. George Unseld. The knowledge gained by these boys will prove very useful in Freshman, J.V., and Varsity Basketball.

The spirit and drive behind these teams was furnished by a talented group of girls, the Junior High Cheerleaders. Their enthusiasm united the entire student body and promoted school spirit. Miss Mary Mueller was their sponsor.

The fundamentals learned by these boys, if developed, will make them Seneca's future Champs.

The Hi-Y, Seventh, and Eighth Grade Basketball Teams

Happiness is being in Junior High.

Is it a bird, a plane, or a fish, Mrs. Middleton?

... and that was the day we started the research project.

Junior High Glimpses

The broom brigade?!

A drink or a drenching?

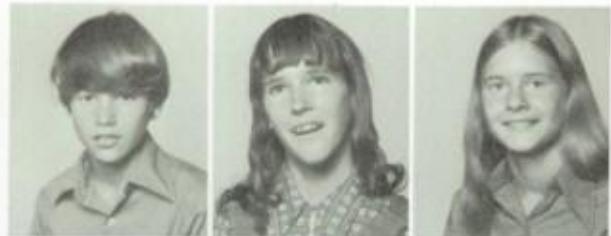

A sound footing and a sure foundation is something every eighth grade class would like to boast of. This past year put these 1971-72 eighth grade students to a real test, and they came into the winner's circle after what seemed to be a long, rocky road. This class will be the first freshmen in the new elective quarter plan next year, thus opening new paths, strange roads and excellent opportunities. A sure start makes for a strong finish, and this class is off and running!

Class

It's Spring again and the trees in the center courtyard shade the comfortable green grass.

How do you find the right road on which to travel in Junior High School? This difficult decision was faced by the class of 1977. All of the members of the class have built on to their future excellently at Seneca, although junior high life was confusing. These newest members of Seneca were involved in football, basketball, and the Junior High Student Council. These future leaders of Seneca have come from an active and responsible class that has strived hard and worked with dedication.

losing his head all the time. Thank you!
Jora J. THE SUPER STAR

Daylight arrived in more than one place that January day. I now realize that if I am to travel along understandingly with my world neighbors, I must know THEIR LANGUAGES, too. Words are the communication keys that fit the lock of every nationality's door.

"I am not telling you what you should do or what you should not do, because everyone has a right to make a fool of himself once in his life."

Dr. Joseph Swain, President
Indiana University 1893-1902

Linda,
Is a real sweet friend
With a good personality.
Good luck at Seneca Good luck in the future.

Linda,
Is a really good friend of mine. I remember all the fun
we had together. I hope you have good luck in everything you do (especially Dave) You've also got a great personality. Love ya,
Cindy "75"

Linda,
To really one of the crazy and dumbest person I know. Don't ever forget all the stupid times we have had in the 8th Mrs. Carter's and 9th Mr. Signor's class. I never forgot all the things you told me. (you know)
And thanks for listening to all the thing about
Steve, Mike, and Ricky
Happell, your really great friend to have

Love ya
Mooch
Steve

To Linda, a sweet girl with a great personality remember class is you don't forget. Good luck at Seneca and future years at Seneca and last, since forever!!
Linda

Linda, you been so o great girl) & all the class. How dare I say it all) Marty and

To Linda
The greatest and sweetest feel ever have ill always always + true to our self + some times I'll shoulder my need of You've really missed me a lot as "we" as cry + good times. Don't forget the Roman + Billy put I can't play so well now. There's so much to say + the played we'll well. There's a lot of us someone forgot ya. I can't love as we do We never forgot ya + we don't forget me if you'd like say right now ya up. Don't forget your always remember all + I'll send best love. Always
